THE CLOSING HOURS

Of California's Framers of Laws

CHARACTERIZED BY DULLNESS

The Majority Report in the Johnson Boodle Case is Unanimously Adopted.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—There was practically nothing done this morning by the legislature. Saturday the assembly adjourned until 11.30 o'clock this morning, as a large number of assemblymen wished to go to San Francisco, many of whom were guests of the harbor commissioners yesterday on an excursion around the bay on the state tug Governor Markham.

When the gavel did sound in the assembly a number of bills of no importance relating to contingent expenses, advertising and the like were taken up until recess.

This afternoon the special senate file was taken up and the following bills were read the third time and passed:

Act to provide for the construction and furnishing of additional school buildings for the use of the State normal school at Los Angeles.

Act to provide and regulate the manner of receiving and paying fees and other compensation for official services in cities, and cities and counties having a population of over 100,000 inhabitants, and prescribing the duties of officers with reference thereto.

Act to create a special commission for the purpose of examining and reporting to the thirty-first session of the legislature on Torren's land transfer act of Australia.

Act to authorize acquisition by donation of site or sites for camps of instruction for the National Guard of the state of California and to improve the same.

Everett's bill to limit the power of a city auditor's work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks and for the construction of sewers within municipalities.

The majority report of the Johnson investigating committee came up on Mordecai's motion for its adoption.

Bladso tried to have his minority report considered first, but did not succeed.

After Mordecai had spoken at length favoring the adoption of his report, Bladso moved that his minority report be substituted.

A motion made to dispense with the reading of the minority report was lost and the majority report was adopted by a unanimous vote.

This evening the following bills were finally passed:

O'Keefe's bill, taking the appointing of grand jurors out of the hands of supervisors and placing it in the hands of the superior judges.

Carlson's amendment relative to irrigation districts.

The bill to pay Cyrus Lyons' claim of $1000 for the capture of Anastacio Garcia in 1885.

Raw's bill to give the right of eminent domain to electric and power lighting companies.

The bill to compel foreign insurance companies doing business in this state to deposit with the insurance commissioner the sum of $200,000. Adjourned.

The Senate.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—On the urgency file the bill to provide for working convicts on public roads passed.

Tonight the following bills were passed without opposition:

The bill to provide a penalty for the destruction of trees upon highways.

Mayer's eight-hour bill.

Special orders were taken up and a lot of bills to pay claims for the relief of numerous persons were passed.

The bill to build a jute plant for Folsom prison came up. Seymour moved to strike out the enacting clause, but it was refused by a vote of 21 to 11. Adjourned.

Wholly Democratic.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The present roll call of the senate shows 44 Democrats, 28 Republicans, 1 Populist, 1 Independent, 1 Farmers' Alliance and three vacancies. The vacancies are one each in Montana, Washington and Wyoming. Should the Republicans eventually fill all these vacancies, which can scarcely be the case in view of Beckwith's appointment in Wyoming, it would give them 41. Should the third party senators then all vote with the Republicans, which is an unlikely supposition, the senate will still be a tie, with Vice President Stevenson holding the controlling vote. The composition of the house, as shown by unofficial returns, is 217 Democrats, 126 Republicans, 8 Third party.

Want the Time Extended.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The senate in executive session this morning confirmed all the cabinet nominations.

When the doors were reopened after the executive session Sherman presented a joint resolution extending the terms of president and vice president and of the Fifty-fourth congress from March 4, 1893, till April 30, and that that time shall hereafter be substituted as the time for the commencement and termination of the official terms of president and vice president and members of the senate and house. The object is to put the inaugural time in better weather. The motion was laid on the table.

Shook Cleveland's Hand.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Crowds of distinguished visitors began to swarm the White House early today and Mr. Cleveland was obliged to forego his work and listen to words of congratulations from governors of states, senators, representatives and others. Shortly after 9 o'clock the driveway leading to the main doorways of the White House was soon packed with people anxious to shake hands with the President. A multitude of the general public poured through the main doorway in droves and passed bowing, smiling or handshaking the chief magistrate. The President kept up this monotonous routine until 1 o'clock.

Women in Politics.

SAN DIEGO, March 6.—There is a strong movement here to put women on the city board of education so as to lift it out of politics. The Democrats have nominated a woman in six of the eight wards, and the Republicans and Populists have also named a woman on their tickets for the board; for the Sixth ward Mrs. Georgia A. Matfield has been put on all three tickets, which assures at least one woman member.

Their Last Ride.

LIMA, O., March 6.—A freight train on the Chicago & Erie road went through a bridge over the Ottawa river today, making a bad wreck. Three tramps are buried in the ruins.

HAWAII NEWS.

Latest From That Wants-to-be-Annexed Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The schooner Witzeman, which arrived from Honolulu this morning, brings a letter to the Associated Press under date of February 13th. Everything was quiet on the islands, and the people were awaiting developments from the commissioners at work in Washington. The British man-of-war Garnet arrived at Honolulu from Acapulco, and will remain until April. Her commander knew nothing of the revolution until he arrived. The American and German interests on the islands are united for annexation to the United States. The natives want a government of their own and the English are not strongly opposed to annexation.

The barkentine Hilo arrived from Honolulu this evening. She left there February 18th, and brings advices two days later than those received this morning. The only additional intelligence is the fact that the United States man-of-war Alliance arrived at Honolulu February 16th from Samoa, increasing the American naval strength there to three vessels.

The bark Carrier Dove arrived here from Honolulu tonight bringing advices to the Associated Press up to February 16. Little of importance has transpired on the islands recently. Owing to rumors that ex-Queen Lilioukalani intended to visit the palace, which, to the native mind, would be equivalent to the assumption of royal power, orders have been issued by the military authorities to resist any such attempt on the part of the queen.

The editor of a native paper has been arrested for criticising the provincial government severely.

Everybody in Honolulu is still anxiously awaiting news from the United States.

HONORS TO HARRISON.

Royal Welcome by His Old Friends and Neighbors.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 6.—Ex-President Harrison was welcomed home today. The city was gaily decorated, and Harrison was escorted to his hotel by a procession. Then he drove to his old home. Tonight a general reception at the State house was held.

Today the house of representatives unanimously adopted resolutions extending to Hon. Benjamin Harrison a cordial and hearty welcome upon his return to his home, and congratulations for the "high honor he has achieved for himself and the state of Indiana as President of the United States of America, from which high office he has just retired full of honors."

The capital of the state of Indiana did honor to her most distinguished citizen tonight. Fully 15,000 people gathered at the state house to bid him welcome and greeted him with most enthusiastic demonstrations of applause.

The interior of the state house was beautifully draped with flags and over the speaker's stand floated the state banner of Indiana. When General Harrison stepped to the front of the platform cheers were three times three and repeated.

After suitably acknowledging his welcome the ex-President shook hands with the people who filed by, and thousands were turned away unsatisfied. It was the greatest public reception to any individual Indianapolis has seen in years.

The legislature paid their respects to General Harrison in a body.

Had a Narrow Escape.

HAVANA, March 6.—A serious conflict occurred yesterday at Alen Endarex, which nearly resulted in serious injury to a number of American young women known as the American Female Baseball club. The attendance included a share of the lowest grade of society, and these latter became irritated at the playing of the American visitors. They clamored for a restitution of their money, and at length broke the seats and set fire to the fence around the playground. At this there was general consternation among the female players, who were gallantly defended by the young men of the opposing Cuban club and by the respectable majority of the spectators. Horrible confusion ensued. The police finally succeed in dispersing the mob and giving protection to the young women.

Invited to Attend.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The committee on ceremonies at the World's Fair this afternoon called on President Cleveland and invited him to be present and take part in the opening exercises. The President replied in an entirely informal manner, saying there would be many things claiming his attention at that time, but if he decided to go it would be because he considered it a public duty. He would consider the matter and announce his decision in a day or two. The invitation was done on vellum, and is very elaborate and beautiful. It is inclosed in a morocco case, lined with white silk. Invitations will also be extended to Mrs. Cleveland and the cabinet officers and other prominent people.

Gresham Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Judge Gresham took the oath of office of secretary of state this afternoon. Wharton afterwards signed Judge Gresham's commission and the latter will perform a like office tomorrow for his associates in the cabinet, who will take hold on Wednesday.

Griffith's Knife.

ORONVILLE, March 6.—Von Otto Miller was fatally stabbed at Norris' ravine today by a man named Griffith. Two cuts were inflicted, one in the abdomen and one in the back. Trouble rose over a building owned by Miller and occupied by Griffith. The latter is 70 years old.

Miners Win.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—In an opinion delivered by Justice Blatchford for Chief Justice Fuller in the case of George A. Pettibone and other striking Coeur d'Alene miners in Idaho, against the United States, the court decided in favor of the miners, and directed that the indictment against them be quashed.

Judge Rowell Dead.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—Judge G. W. C. Rowell of San Bernardino died at the Western hotel here tonight of pneumonia. He came here in quite feeble health and took a cold which settled on his lungs.

THE EXCLUSION ACT

Must Be More Rigidly Enforced

ALONG THE PACIFIC COAST

The Treasury Department Has Issued Stringent Orders to Customs Officials.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The treasury department is informed that numerous fraudulent papers have been presented by Chinese upon the Pacific coast and Canadian border, claiming to be merchants with a right to domicile in the United States. In view of this state of affairs Assistant Secretary Spaulding has instructed collectors of customs to disregard all such papers and refuse entry, unless it is proven satisfactorily that the persons presenting them have the right to land. This order is the most stringent ever issued by the treasury department in its endeavor to enforce the Chinese exclusion act.

BLAZES OF GLORY.

The Capital in the Hands of Pyrotechnists.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Incidental to the inauguration festivities was the illumination tonight of the capital building and Pennsylvania avenue and the display of fire works on government grounds. These occurred tonight. Electric suns were placed on stands twelve feet high in front of the capitol that illuminated that building.

The effect was beautiful and the structure, being on a hill, its sharp outline was visible miles away.

The lighting of the avenue was effected by forty union illuminations, and these supplemented by electric suns at the treasury department, completed a scene of great brilliancy.

The best entertainment of the evening was pyrotechnical display in the monument grounds where, for about an hour, the crowds were treated to a perfect fusillade of explosions, following each other in rapid succession, and including all numerous devices known to pyrotechnic art.

The Missing Steamer.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The White Star steamer Naronic is still among the missing crafts. She is now twelve days overdue and there is not a single trace of her whereabouts. The overdue Italy, which it was thought might possibly have the Naronic in tow, arrived today and reports that she saw nothing of the missing freighter. Not a few express a belief that the big craft with her crowd of passengers and valuable cargo has gone to the bottom.

Philadelphia—The British steamship Eglentine was sighted tonight passing the Delaware breakwater. She signaled that she had a crew of shipwrecked seamen on board. Among shipping men it is believed the shipwrecked people were the Naronic's crew.

A Fatal Jump.

LOS ANGELES, March 6.—While prisoners were being taken from the jail to the court house today one Jose Garcia made a desperate break for liberty. He jumped over the wall on Broadway, but was there recaptured by a deputy. When taken back to jail he was found to be badly injured internally from the fall over the wall, and he will probably die.

Will Not Rehear.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The supreme court refused to rehear the cases in which the United States and the Southern Pacific company and Colton Marble company are parties. In these cases the suit was recently decided against the railroad's title under its land grant to an immense quantity of valuable lands in Southern California.

Murderous Eck.

CHICAGO, March 6.—Frank Eck, formerly a fireman of Wichita, Kas., murdered his wife tonight by cutting her throat, and then slashing his own from ear to ear. Mrs. Eck had been employed in a hotel here for two weeks past, having left her husband, who, she said, was so insanely jealous that she could not live with him.

Rough on the Sluggers.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Pugilism has received a death blow in Brooklyn, the police authorities having decided that no more professional boxing matches will be permitted in that city.

Settled Well.

WHITEWELL, Tenn., March 6.—The Morrison and Ross families have settled their old feud with knives. Roy and Taylor Morrison and Will Ross were cut to pieces.

Didn't Like It.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—The assembly judiciary committee tonight handed in an unfavorable report on Wilson's anti-scalper bill, which has already passed the senate.

Josiah Accepted.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Hon. Josiah Quincy of Massachusetts has accepted the position of assistant secretary of state.

Coming to See Us.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Postmaster General Wanamaker will leave Washington Wednesday evening for a tour of California and Mexico.

Gresham Resigns.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Judge Gresham has filed his resignation as judge of the seventh circuit court, and it has been accepted.

E. M. Pattison and wife and George Gerke and wife of Cincinnati are visiting I. N. Pattison of this city, a relative of the first named.

J. B. Meloche and wife and W. Perkins are among the Maderaites in town.

Dirt!

Your watch needs cleaning and oiling once every eighteen months, if you would preserve its timekeeping qualities. Consider: "In that time the balance wheel turns on its delicate axis 13,996,800,000 times; it does not "rest" at night, like ordinary machines, but keeps at its work unceasingly. You sit in cushion, or a sewing machine, or any other mechanical contrivance, daily or weekly; but that delicate instrument of precision—your watch—is allowed to go uncared for until it is clogged with dirt, and stops. The best of oil becomes thick and dirty in time; in this condition it wears the pivots, and destroys that exactness of their fit in the jewel holes which is necessary to a correct performance. Let us look at your watch—We will give you a conscientious opinion as to whether it needs attention.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Official forecast for twenty-four hours ending midnight, March 7 — Northern California — Fair weather, stationary temperature except slightly cooler at Red Bluff and vicinity, variable winds.

So FAR as Adlai is concerned, the inaugural was disappointing. He did not carry his axe, and made no remarks about having such a thing.

GRESHAM is the only man in the lot who brings a full crop of whiskers to the cabinet, and they are the only concession yet made to the Populists.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND struck a rich vein in his inaugural address. There were streaks of gold running all the way through it, and not a trace of silver.

SANTA BARBARA will have her annual flower festival on April 11th. What the people down there can't produce in the way of flowers don't amount to much, and when they turn themselves loose on an annual flower show it is worth going miles to see.

IT is not exactly correct to say that the Vennship of this state is to be let to the highest bidder, but it is given out as one of the rules that no bid will be accepted if the applicant is under five feet and six inches in height, which is a pretty cold deal for sawed-off "wonuses."

The sewer bonds were beaten Saturday. The property owners who had sewers as a rule voted against the bonds. They had all the sewers they wanted, and were willing to let the other property holders do without.—Expositor.

We do not believe that one taxpayer in fifty cast his vote against the bonds for this selfish reason. A great many people did vote against them, however, because the Expositor and the Triangle wanted them. They considered that sufficient evidence that there was a job somewhere in the proposition.

If the Expositor expects the slightest credence to be given its denial that it is supporting the Triangle on account of having been awarded the city printing contract, it should state why it is supporting that combination. It cannot claim to be doing so on account of loyalty to party, for it has damned the political methods of these men as utterly disreputable while they were the dominant power in the Democratic municipal administration. It has denounced their administration as one of jobbery and of incompetency. Can it tell why it is supporting them now?

A CABLE di-patch states that the Waldenses, who inhabit valleys on the Italian side of the Cottian Alps, seriously meditate emigration to North Carolina. It would be difficult to imagine more desirable immigrants. Their name is an inspiration, and brings up historical memories of a suffering for conscience sake, of devotion to liberty of soul, to purity and to religion that is unsurpassed in the chronicles of mediæval or modern Christianity. The claim of the Waldenses to have been a separate community since the Apostolic age is generally believed to be incorrect, but there is no doubt that they took their stand as reformers before the advent of Luther. For century after century they were mercilessly persecuted, but held their own with a marvelous courage, vitality and tenacity, repulsing in 1689 a French army of 22,000 men which entered their valleys with the object of destroying them. This was the last serious persecution of the Waldenses, although it was not until 1848 that they were put on the same political level as their Catholic fellow subjects in Piedmont. The reason for the proposed emigration is the depressed condition of the business of cloth-making, on which the Waldenses largely depend for a living. The condition of affairs which drives those simple and frugal people to abandon their native valleys must indeed be depressing, but they will certainly be welcome in the United States should they turn their faces in this direction.

E. S. VAN METER makes this statement in regard to the "procuring" of the Expositor's services by the Triangle: A few weeks ago Mr. Van Meter met Trustee Alford, and in the course of a conversation Alford what the Expositor was going to do in the approaching city election. Mr. Alford replied that the matter had been arranged; that he had seen the proprietor of the Expositor at the time the bids for city printing were under consideration and had told him that the trustees could award the Expositor the contract, but they failed to see any reason why the Expositor should be given the preference. The proprietor of the Expositor then stated that as chairman of the municipal central committee he would call the convention at an early date, and that the Expositor would support the nominees of the convention. In accordance with this agreement, which Mr. Van Meter says that Trustee Alford thus described to him, the city printing contract was awarded to the Expositor, the highest bidder, admittedly so as regards the job printing, which was let under a separate contract. This is Mr. Van Meter's statement in regard to this matter, and as every particle of circumstantial evidence goes to corroborate it, something decidedly more substantial than mere denial will be necessary to convince anybody that he has in any way misrepresented the case. A newspaper which has made a record for playing fast and loose with its party and trafficking for spoils, when confronted with the statement of this character cannot succeed in convincing the public that it is honest in supporting men whom it has vindictively assailed, by sitting on its haunches and howling that somebody is a liar.

THE PARK JOB.

One of the most plainly illegal and barefaced pieces of jobbery that has been perpetrated on the taxpayers of this city under Triangle rule is the city park job as it is being manipulated by Trustee Fahey of the Fourth ward. There is plenty of the-public-be-damned sentiment in the letting of contracts to the highest bidder regardless of the plain requirements of law, but the manner in which several thousand dollars of the people's money is being spent on the park job without even a pretence of going through the forms prescribed by law is a little more brazen than anything that has yet been attempted by this combination, which sets itself up as superior to all law.

This thing should be stopped. It is an outrage upon law and decency and the rights of the taxpayers of the city which should not be permitted for another day. The law plainly provides that no work requiring the expenditure of more than $100 shall be done without advertising for bids and letting the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

In open defiance of the law work on the city park to the amount of several thousand of dollars is being done under the direction of a committee, and it is evident that one member has full sway on the job. Nobody but this committee —or the member of it who boards the workmen—knows anything about what is being paid for this work. The bills are coming in piecemeal, and are being paid without investigation. On the top of the regular work a paving job amounting in cost to several hundred dollars has been done, and the bills are now coming in for that in job-lots, the items so far being for labor and use of machinery.

Not one of these bills should be paid. They are incurred in flagrant and open violation of law, and the city treasurer has no right to pay them. If he does pay them he and his bondsmen are responsible to the city for every cent so paid. More than that, the people look to the treasurer in a case of this kind for protection. He alone stands between the treasury and a gang of jobbers who defy law and public opinion. He has heretofore resisted unlawful raids on the treasury, and there has never been a case in which his official resistance was more plainly in demand than in the present one. Private individuals naturally dislike to interpose, on account of the large amount of bonds which they are required to give. An official can act upon his discretion and no bonds are required. The only financial responsibility incurred by him or the city is that of costs, and if this case be tested THE REPUBLICAN will agree to pay any costs that may be incurred by the city or the treasurer.

In the name of the law, of justice and decency, THE REPUBLICAN demands that this high handed outrage be stopped at once. It has already been permitted to go too far.

Buying and Selling a Blind Man.

A queer business transaction has just come to light in Paris. A man was arrested for buying a blind man. It seems that the first owner of the blind man secured him from an asylum and used to lead him along in front of the cafes to beg. The venture was not a financial success, so he sold his blind man to another speculator, who was soon disgusted. The unfortunate man was deserted on the streets by his purchaser, and in that way the police became acquainted with the peculiar transaction.—Exchange.

The Horse Objected.

Luther Springer, of Hancock, Mo., owns a horse, whose days of usefulness being over, he hired a man to kill. The man taking an axe started to lead the horse into the woods, but after going some distance the animal suddenly attacked the would be slayer and throwing him down trampled upon him and injured him so badly that it is feared he will not recover. At last accounts the horse's prospects of living were much better than the man's.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Prince of Wales is about to become a bicyclist. He will not only need a safety machine up to eighteen stone, but he will find an elevator to hoist him into the saddle a very acceptable addition to it.—Exchange.

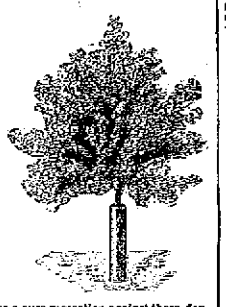
The Pacific Tree Protector

Protects Your Trees From Sunburn, Borers, Rabbits and Other Tree Pests.

IN WARM CLIMATES, or in sections inhabited by the rabbit, the difficulty is not in making the tree and vine grow, but after they have started the obstacles begin, by settlements upon the sucky tissues of the plant. The borer, under sun, penetrating its head through the tissues of the bark, warps the sap to such a degree as to disturb its osmotic action from roll to roll, which leads to the destruction of them, and consequently that part of the trunk or vine exposed to the greatest heat falls into a decay, and the grower who had hopes of piling himself upon the appearance of his trees, is confronted with a number of disfigured trees, destroying the beauty and symmetry of the surroundings. To but another foe to contend with, which is really more destructive in its taste. The unsuspecting young trees and vines destroyed by his craving stomach and sharp teeth would stock numerous large orchards and vineyards. The unsightly shake was a painful procedure to the tree from the sun, but what the sun spared the rabbit got.



THE PACIFIC TREE PROTECTOR can be counted upon as a sure protection against those dangers. A distance between the trunk and protector serves to keep the former cool by allowing a circulation of air. The cost ranges—very slight—1 to 2 Cents a Tree.

FRANK DANIELS

To Appear at Barton Opera House Friday, March 17th.

Frank Daniels' new play, "Dr. Cupid," is one of the greatest successes in all the history of farce comedy. This condition, to whom the hackneyed term intimitable may be justly applied, has in the character of Theophile Mudge one that rivals even the unparalleled Packingham Gilt-edge in irresistible gaiety and grotesque humor. Mudge is a hotel keeper, member of innumerable secret orders, whose badges he wears on his person. Moreover, he has a wen on his neck. The blemish he has removed by his prospective son in-law, Dr. Cupid. It is the young man's first case. In the operation of healing the scar, a piece of skin is grafted to Mr. Mudge's neck. This is fraught with serious consequences in that he unconsciously absorbs some of the qualities of the man whose skin he borrowed. Among other amusing things a tuft of flame colored whiskers sprout on old man Mudge's neck, for the graft was from the cheek of a red haired tramp. But to try to explain the whys and wherefores of all the fun that keeps the audience in an almost uninterrupted shriek of laughter would make a long story.

Perhaps the second act is the funniest of all, for it introduces Mudge as an athletic gentleman with a weakness for boxing. Frank Daniels' personality affords the charms the charm in all of his impersonations. As a matter of fact Mr. Daniels has no superior on the stage as an eccentric comedian, and his gifts shine their brightest in "Dr. Cupid." His company is capital and furnishes no small part of the entertainment. John Canfield distinguished himself in the character of the inventor. Harry Carson Clarke as Dr. Cupid and Bessie Sanson as Marjorie Mudge do clever work. Indeed, each individual in the company is praiseworthy.—St. Louis Chronicle.

W. D. Grady Resuscitates the Fiske Railings.

CITY ATTORNEY TERRY RESIGNS

The Returns of the Se er Bond Election to Be Canvassed This Morning.

All the members of the city trustees were present at the meeting last night. There was no much routine business transacted and a speech or two from Lawyer Grady that the board adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

A communication was read from City Attorney Reul B. Terry tendering his resignation to take effect immediately.

Mr. Terry stated orally that his professional engagements would prevent him from attending to further duties of the office.

Fahey and Church each introduced resolutions thanking Mr. Terry for the learning, ability, zeal and fidelity with which he had discharged the duties of his office.

Church nominated George B. Graham for the vacancy, and Mr. Graham was unanimously declared elected.

THE CITY ELECTION.

The clerk read the notice calling for the municipal election and prescribing the polling places and officers of election. It was adopted and ordered published.

SALOON LICENSES.

A petition was received from W. O. Harrold asking that John Drager's saloon license be transferred to him, he having purchased Drager's saloon on Mariposa street. Granted.

The petition of F. K. Luchman for a license to conduct a saloon on I street, was granted.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN APPOINTED.

A petition was received from residents of the Fifth ward asking for the appointment of B. Millovich as a regular policeman of the Fifth ward. Granted.

FRESNO STREET GRADING.

A petition was received from property owners on Fresno street asking for an extension of forty days' time on the work of paving that street.

Alford opposed the petition. He thought that forty days was too long.

Church moved that the petition be granted.

Fahey moved that the time be extended to April 1st.

Fahey's motion carried.

Superintendent of Streets Jones announced that J. T. Shanklin wanted a ten days' extension of time to complete the grading of Fresno street.

Fahey and Alford opposed the extension, and suggested that Mr. Shanklin should petition the board and specify how many days' time he wanted.

Mr. Church moved that he be granted ten days' further time, and the motion was defeated by the following vote:

Ayes—Church and Herrington.

Noes—Fahey, Alford and Cole.

Alford moved that when they adjourn they adjourn until this morning at 9 o'clock, at which time Mr. Shanklin could present his petition in proper form.

Mr. Church expressed considerable indignation at the action of the board, and the motion to meet at 9 this morning was carried by Cole, Alford and Fahey.

HOTEL GAS WORKS.

An ordinance was read authorizing D. J. Canty to operate a gas machine in the Hughes hotel and to lay pipes for the conveyance of the gas from the Hughes hotel to the Grand Central. The franchise extends for a period of ten years. The ordinance was adopted.

A petition was received from property owners asking that the south half of block 70 be excluded from the fire limits.

Church moved that the petition be denied. The erection of wooden buildings on that block would jeopardize property in the neighborhood in case of fire.

Alford seconded Church's motion, and the petition was denied, Cole alone voting no.

STREET WORK.

An ordinance accepting the grading of R street, between Mariposa and Tulare streets, was adopted.

A. N. GRADY LAID OFF.

A. N. Grady asked for a lay-off from duty as a policeman from March 20 until the further pleasure of the board. The request was granted.

RESOLUTIONS OF INTENTION.

Resolutions of intention to perform street work were adopted as follows: To grade F street, from Tuolumne north to the city limits.

To grade P street.

TRANSFER OF FUNDS.

Herrington moved to transfer $5000 from the general fund to the street fund. Carried.

THE FISKE RAILINGS.

W. D. Grady appeared on behalf of Mrs. Marceau and gave a history of the legal proceedings in the matter of the removal of the railings in front of the Fiske building on J street. The injunction against the city was served before the boards were placed over the openings. He announced that he would on Monday next apply to the court to dissolve the injunction and allow the city the privilege of putting glass on the openings. The front of the basement has been leased to persons who propose to open a restaurant there. They have paid their rent and are now ready for business.

The matter should be settled at once, either by litigation or consent. The glass and iron frames all of the most common quality will cost $650 in San Francisco, and it will cost about $200 more to lay it, but Colonel Marceau does not wish to use the glass, but a better quality, which will cost $1200. He asked the board what it would allow in order to have all litigation dismissed.

He is the Barton opera house, added Mr. Grady, with half of the sidewalk taken up with railings, the Fresno National Bank railings and railings in front of the new building on the corner of I and Fresno streets. He did not think that it was right to make an example of his clients while allowing other property owners the right to use the sidewalks. His clients were willing to meet the board half way. They would be willing to accept $503, or they would take the law.

Church said that the matter should have been brought to trial long ago.

Grady remarked that the boards had been placed over the openings with his consent, and he proposed next Monday to remove the boards.

Church suggested that the matter should be referred to the city attorney. Ex City Attorney Terry, he added, had advised them that the city would win the suit.

It would be impossible for the board to litigate the case for $500. That would not do more than pay for the shorthand reporter's transcript.

Church replied that the city should be able to take care of its own side of the case, and it would not cost the city any more to litigate the case than it would cost Colonel Marceau. This was a law suit and the city can stand a law suit as well as Colonel Marceau.

The motion to refer the matter to the city attorney was carried.

The canvassing of the returns of the election for bonds was postponed until this morning.

THE PEOPLES' PARTY

Hold Their Municipal Convention.

THEY CONDEMN THE TRIANGLE

And Indorse Several Republican Nominees and One Democratic—A Harmonious Meeting.

The city convention of the People's party was held last evening in Justice H. Z. Austin's court room. It was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock by S. S. Culver, secretary of the city central club of the party. A temporary organization was effected by the selection of W. H. Cureton as president, F. Knobloch vice president and S. S. Culver secretary.

President Cureton then appointed the following committees:

On credentials—J. B. Hill, F. W. Howard, A. Eastabrook.

On permanent organization and order of business—A. W. Robinson, F. Knobloch, J. M. Rose.

On platform and resolutions—A. C. Crossman, I. L. Grainger, E. S. Barney.

The following delegates were declared entitled to seats by the committee on credentials:

First ward—E. S. Barney, J. S. Eastwood (S. S. Culver proxy), A. C. Crossman, J. M. Young (A. W. Robinson proxy), A. W. Robinson.

Second—F. Knobloch, F. A. Lynn, J. M. Rose, K. T. Lynn (F. A. Lynn proxy), A. Wintermute.

Third—J. B. Hill, H. C. Warner, F. W. Howard, Fred Reisner (A. Mosely proxy), J. M. Boyd.

Fourth—A. S. Edgerly, A. Eastabrooks, H. A. G. Smith, F. W. Matheirs, J. H. Rhoads, — Dunn.

Fifth—J. Klee, W. Y. Johnson (W. H. Ware proxy), D. Hester, S. B. Tombs, G. W. Armitage.

Roberts—T. R. Harmon, W. H. Cureton, O. B. Olois, J. E. Doolittle, J. L. Grainger.

The delegates from Roberts precinct were to have a vote merely in the matter of the election of school trustees.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported that the temporary officers should be permanent.

Following was the order of business: Nomination of candidates for city trustee from the Second, Fourth and Fifth wards; nominations for city marshal, assessor, recorder, treasurer and school trustees. The report was adopted.

After this the report of the committee on resolutions was submitted. It was as follows:

To the People's party convention:

We, your committee, recommend the following:

That this convention, representatives of the People's party of the city of Fresno, do hereby proclaim:

First, that we believe in the principles laid down in the platform adopted by the Omaha convention and bind ourselves to work for that end, which will cause the same to become the law of the land, never swerving, but ever advancing.

Second, that we believe at the present time the affairs of this city are so mismanaged, that it would not be the part of wisdom or patriotism to adhere strictly to party lines in the selection of those to be placed in charge of our municipal offices.

Third, we join with the people at large in condemnation of the spirit of extravagance manifested by those in authority, and pledge our nominees to the spirit of reform in all that will advance the principles which are laid down in that motto: "Special privileges to none and justice to all, and the greatest good to the greatest number."

The question on the adoption of the resolutions caused a lengthy discussion. W. H. Cureton spoke at some length in favor of putting a straight People's Party ticket in the field. He read a letter addressed to the convention from Assemblyman H. J. T. Jacobsen, favoring a straight ticket and opposing fusion. James E. Doolittle spoke to the same purpose as Mr. Cureton.

The great majority of the delegates, however, were opposed to nominating a straight ticket, some of those speaking against the step being H. C. Warner, E. S. Barney, S. S. Culver and A. C. Crossman. W. H. Cureton then offered the following amendment:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that a straight Peoples' Party ticket should be nominated, if any.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost. Nominations for trustee from the Second ward were then declared in order. C. J. Craycroft was the only one named, and he was nominated unanimously. E. C. Adams and Joseph Spinney were unanimously nominated for trustee from the Fourth and Fifth Wards, respectively.

Nominations for city marshal were then called for, J. D. Morgan and M. L. Woy being named. A ballot was taken, which resulted in the choice of the former, the vote being 14 to 8.

C. C. Lyon was put in nomination for city assessor, and chosen unanimously.

A motion that no nomination be made by the convention for city recorder carried. The same action was taken with regard to the office of city treasurer, it being the general opinion that both the Republican and Democratic nominees were first class men, and it would be better to make no invidious distinction by indorsing either.

Nominations for school trustees were then declared in order.

A. Eastabrook made a brief speech, which was very favorably received, suggesting that the convention recognize the women of this city in making nominations for this important office. He was of the opinion that women had perhaps a greater interest in school matters than men, and believed that they should be represented on the board. That they were well fitted to serve in such a capacity had been often proved.

The speaker nominated Mrs. Geiss.

Editor Wilkins of the Central Californian and others spoke in the same strain, as did others.

H. C. Warner, while in favor of Eastabrooks' suggestion, expressed a doubt that a teacher could serve as a school trustee, and thought it would be best to provide for such a contingency.

It was finally decided that the chair appoint a delegate from each ward and Roberts precinct and one at large as a committee to make nominations for school trustees, the same to be submitted to the executive committee. Those appointed were as follows:

First ward, E. S. Barney; Second, F. Knobloch; Third, H. C. Warner; Fourth, A. Easterbrook; Fifth, S. B. Tombs; Roberts precinct, T. R. Harmon; at large, J. M. Boyd.

The following city executive committee, to serve for the ensuing year, was appointed by the president:

A. W. Robinson, F. Knobloch, J. M. Boyd, A. Easterbrook, S. S. Culver and J. B. Hill. President W. H. Cureton was, on motion, added to the committee.

The convention then adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

A STREET FIGHT.

Detective Smith and Thomas Stokes, Come to Blows

Shortly after arriving in town, Detective Smith was the center of a group of interested people, and was engaged in telling the story of the fight. Thomas Stokes, a brother of Ettie, edged his way into the crowd and told Mr. Smith that he had shot into his (Stokes') house. This Smith positively denied and stated that it was it impossible to shoot into the house from where he was standing. Stokes said Smith was a liar. Smith, as quick as a flash, made a jump for Stokes, but he was seized by men in the crowd. He succeeded in getting released and he flew at Stokes again and landed a terrific blow, striking Stokes in the corner of the eye. Stokes fell backwards, but was assisted to his feet. The blow caused the blood to flow for a few minutes.—Visalia Delta.

THE ADDITIONAL JUDGE.

A CORRESPONDENT SAYS ONE IS NECESSARY.

Some Statistics in Regard to the Condition of the Court Calendar.

I am told that a petition is in circulation asking the governor to veto either the county division bill, or, failing in that, to veto the bill for an additional judge for the superior court of Fresno county. I am inclined to think that Governor Markham will do neither. Both bills were for a long time before the legislature, and were fully considered. There was no snap judgment in either case. Everybody in the county who reads the newspapers was aware for five or six weeks that both measures were pending.

The Madera county bill was stoutly opposed, but was triumphantly carried through. I considered it unwise, especially for the people of the new county, and still think so. But they are dissatisfied with Fresno county, and seem determined to go, and therefore it seems proper to deal with them as a wise man would deal with a wife who no longer loves him—to let them go with our blessing. The new county proposition must now be left to to the people of the proposed new county to whom the legislature has submitted it. If the required two-thirds shall vote for separation we part from them with no ill feeling. If they fail to secure the votes necessary for division, we shall be glad that they are still to be with us. I think that Governor Markham will take this view of the matter, rather than to run a mock against the legislature in a local matter, wherein no principle is involved.

As to the judgeship, I do not see that it will be at all affected by the fate of the county division bill. It was passed almost simultaneously with it, with full knowledge that the Madera county bill was to pass also, and no one lifted up his voice in opposition. It had previously passed the senate unanimously.

The additional judge is needed—is absolutely required to relieve the present blockade of the calendar, which so delays the disposition of lawsuits, as, in some cases to amount to a denial of justice. There are appeals from justices' court now over three years old.

I have been shown an official certificate of the clerk of the superior court which shows the condition of the superior court calendar to be this:

Civil actions begun in first six years to January 1, 1836	1404
Same for next six years to January 1, 1892	2916
Same during the year 1892	646
Total	4965

It thus appears that nearly three times as many civil actions were begun during the last year, as the average for the first six years, and one-third more than the average for the second six years.

The certificate also shows that of the above mentioned civil actions, 2203 have been tried, 1181 dismissed and 1410 remain undisposed of; and that on the first day of January, 1893, there were also pending in the superior court 135 appeals from justice courts, 446 probate and 35 criminal cases.

From this showing it is evident that a third judge is absolutely necessary now.

The amount of business before our superior court from the proposed new county is very small, as we learn from the lawyers, and the bill expressly provides that the new judgeship may be abolished whenever it shall cease to be necessary.

I do not think that many of those who are signing the petition for a veto are aware of the real facts in the case. They are carried away by the loud denunciations of self constituted economists, which have no foundation in fact. The truth is that about the only persons who have opportunity to judge of the judicial force needed to dispose of our litigation are our judges, lawyers and the officers of the court. I understand the judgment of all these to be that a third judge is absolutely needed, for a time at least, whether the people vote for the new county or not. And as no one can yet be sure that a two-thirds vote for the new county will be obtained there seems to be no justification for a veto of a bill which unanimously passed the legislature.

MODERN RELIGION.

Rev. Mr. Potter's Address Before the Unity Society.

ANTIQUITY NOT AN ESSENTIAL

Factors That Make up a Rational Belief—Erroneous Hypotheses Exposed.

Rev. J. W. Potter of New Bedford, Mass., addressed a large congregation last Sunday night in the Adventists' church under the auspices of the Unity society. Mr. Potter is a speaker of more than ordinary ability and made a marked impression upon his hearers.

The following is a synopsis of his subject:

It is a popular opinion that a religion is true if it originated a good many centuries ago and if its birth was authenticated by miracles. A religion professing to originate today by miraculous attestation is discredited in all established churches. An infallible religion, these churches claim, must have an antiquity behind it as well as miracles. In contrast to this ordinary theological teaching it was refreshing to hear a scholarly gentleman assert in a ministerial conference that he was more "concerned to know what is to be our religion tomorrow than what it was so many centuries ago." "Nay," said another, "to know rather what it will be the day after tomorrow." The comment had a certain wisdom as well as wit.

Yet to the more prosaic and practical mind it might occur that there is a still nearer question, namely: "What is the religion for today?" This most concerns us who are living today. We want a religion which will meet the actual needs of human society now; a religion that will meet men and women squarely, without equivocation or evasion, just as they are standing or groping perplexed today, with all the problems, personal, social, intellectual, pressing upon them, which this nineteenth century has started.

In order to meet these demands, religion must be progressive—progressive in its teaching and progressive in its practice. It is preposterous to think that a religion which may have met the wants of primitive peoples in Asia 2000 or 4000 years ago, can be adequate without any change, to meet the conditions of human society in Europe and America in these closing years of the nineteenth century. Yet in most of the seminaries of Christendom for training ministers, the basis of the whole system of instruction is that an infallible revelation of religious truth for all countries and all time, was given to those simple and semi-enlightened Asiatics several thousands of years ago. It is but a few years since a professor was dismissed from a Presbyterian theological school in South Carolina for teaching a mild form of the doctrine of evolution with regard to the creation of man. What he taught was that the physical nature of man, like the plants and brute animals, might have been produced by gradual evolution, and that the Bible does not contradict this view. But his opponents affirmed that to teach that Adam's body may have been produced by evolution, while the scripture distinctly declares that Eve's body was created miraculously from the rib of Adam, was a most dangerous heresy, subversive of the Presbyterian creed, and perilous to the very existence of Christianity. And the professor had to go. Dr. Briggs of New York has been more fortunate, and has secured thus far an acquittal in his recent ecclesiastical trial for a similar heresy, though expressed in more learned phrase, as "denial of the inerrancy of scripture."

This doctrine that the religion of the Hebrews was for all time and all lands leads to strange and harmful Sunday school instruction. The "international lesson" prepared for evangelical Sunday schools a few weeks ago was a study of the details of the succession of King Solomon to King David—the movement of Adonijah to seize the crown, aided by the wily and treacherous Joab, counter movements to foil the plot, etc. What has all this to do with religious instruction in a Sunday school in America in the nineteenth century? Has it a hundredth part of relevancy which the story of Abraham Lincoln's succession to the presidency of the United States in 1861 would have? Why should we say that the Almighty lived among the Jews more than he lived among the American people?

Why should it be thought that there is any more religion in studying the military movements of General Joab among the wild tribes of Palestine than in studying the military movements of General Grant or General Sheridan in our own land?

But, strong as these old theological beliefs are, there are many signs that they are being undermined by advancing scholarship and enlightenment. They are discredited in the court of reason. The first characteristic of nineteenth century religion is that it must satisfy reason. It must answer today's questions; or, if not answer them, at least submit them to rational investigation. It must keep pace with the progress of thought; be afraid of no scientific discovery; face the future rather than the past; venerate truth rather than tradition. The love of truth, whatever and wherever it be, must be its impelling enthusiasm, the pursuit of truth its engrossing object, the living of truth its supreme pleasure.

A second characteristic is that nineteenth century religion must be moral. It may be more than morality, but it must at least have morality. Religion must be itself moral through and through. Its beliefs must be moral; its usages must be moral; and this they have not always been. The day is past when religion can safely speak of morality as "filthy rags." It is no longer religion and morality; it is religion in and through morality. And, thirdly, religion as demanded by the nineteenth century must be humanitarian, philanthropic. It must attack social as well as personal evils. It must go into the world as a stalwart practical worker for social amelioration and for human benefit on earth, and not merely try to fit people for a paradise hereafter.

But, to make a religion, these three characteristics, reason morality, humanity, must be not merely added together mechanically, but vitally organized together in personal character; and this is effected under the impelling conviction that man does not exist for his own pleasure and profit alone or even in relation to humanity alone, but that he lives in vital relation to the whole world and its forces, and has a loyal part to perform in carrying forward the purposes of the mysterious eternal power that is working in through him and through all things. The human self living from and for a higher than self, surrendering itself to the call of a higher law and purpose than its own pleasures, really, if need be, to perish so that the higher life may survive, this has always been the essence of real religion under all forms of faith, and must remain as the seed-corn of religious life for this and coming centuries.

THE PLAY.

It Came Very Near Being a Burlesque.

Such a crowded house as greeted the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" last evening and such diversity of opinion as to its merits when the curtain dropped on the last act, and little Eva took her final departure! With the exception of the third act. The performance might have passed for a burlesque on the dear old play so well known to all.

It was little wonder that many of the audience snickered at a pathetic moment when tears should well forth, for there was extreme ambiguity. However, there were many pleasing situations, unfitting though they may have been.

R. A. Graham as St. Clair was very acceptable, but as Marks he was out of setting. Robert Tasker should be trained down for a few seasons and then he might pose as Uncle Tom, but he looks too rugged to die from the effects of such a blow as Legree gave him. Maude Sutton made an amusing Topsy, though she chewed her words so much, pitching them in such an exasperating key, as to tire one out in the endeavor to understand.

Lulu Lillian as Eva was wonderfully well possessed for so young a child, but it seemed cruel to permit her to try her baby voice with such forced, harsh tones.

Sam La Porte showed considerable ability as Cute and evoked much laughter in his attempt to beard the lion in his den, but the entire cast lacked the savoir faire of refined art.

THE BLUME CASE

SUBMITTED TO THE JURY LAST EVENING.

Blume's Sister Attacked With Hysterics--Other Ladies Very Much Affected.

The case of Michael Blume went to the jury last evening about 5:30 o'clock after a trial lasting twenty-four days.

The court room was crowded with people who had come to hear W. D. Tupper's closing argument for the prosecution, quite a number of ladies being present.

Attorney Tupper made an excellent argument, picking out the weak points in the defense and making the best of the stronger evidence for the people. He occupied almost the entire day. The interest was intense and it soon became evident that some of the ladies present were worked up to a high pitch of nervousness.

The arguments closed, Judge Holmes read his instructions to the jury. He had hardly finished when Mrs. Rush, Blume's sister, who had faithfully attended her brother throughout the trial, was seized with hysterics. Her frame shook with the violence of her emotions, and she finally fainted. Some friends conducted her from the courtroom.

Mrs. Haskins, wife of the murdered man, was also deeply affected and sobbed audibly. Of course the other ladies caught the contagion of tears, and being unable to restrain themselves left the room. It was not an easy matter for quite a number of men to resist the inclination to do a little weeping also.

The jury was locked up in Judge Holmes' room, Deputy Sheriff Frank Scott being in charge. As time wore on without their showing a disposition to report, the prophets predicted a hung jury. At about 12 15 this morning the jury ingeniously notified Deputy Sheriff Scott that they were asleep, and one of them expressed his doubt that they could agree.

The deputy sent a message to Judge Holmes, who, however, put in no appearance, probably considering it best that the jury should deliberate a while longer. At 2 30 o'clock this morning the jury was still locked up, but whether the sound from within was caused by their deliberations or their snoring could not be determined.

WEST SIDE SCHOOLS.

A Tour of Inspection by the Superintendent.

Superintendent of Public Schools Thomas J. Kirk has returned from a tour of inspection on the West Side, having visited the schools at Crescent, Idlewild, Lawn Tennis, Huron, Burch, New Hope and Summit Lake.

Crescent school, he considered, is deserving of special mention for regularity of attendance, with twenty-nine pupils enrolled, and weeks pass without a case of tardiness or absence, from which it follows, as a matter of course, that interesting and profitable work is being done in that school. For such good results he gives credit to Miss M. F. Kenny, the teacher, and W. F. Grove, the clerk.

At Lawn Tennis a $2300 school house has been built, the grounds fenced, a windmill built, and much interest taken in school matters. Crops look dubious on all except irrigated land, though the late rain may change the prospect to some extent.

The West Side is settled up with a very intelligent class of people, but in many instances are financially very poor. Irrigation is as yet an unsolved problem for the greater area of that portion of the county. Sheep feed is good, and shepherds and sheep plentiful.

Huron school is poorly attended.

A Balloon for the Kaiser.

The sum of 50,000 marks (£2,000) which the German emperor has just presented to the German Society for the Promotion of Aerial Navigation for the advancement of this science is to be devoted to the construction and equipment of a giant balloon. This balloon will be as high as a four storied house, will be fifty-six feet in diameter and it will contain no less than 2,500 cubic meters of gas. It will be made of Egyptian cotton stuff, and will be coated with vulcanized gum, which is considered better than varnish.

A rather interesting feature of the balloon will be the provision of a special valve of a new kind, which will keep the gas pure for a longer time, and therefore sustain the balloon for a longer period. It is proposed to make within a year no less than fifty journeys with the balloon and to ascend as high as possible, up to 33,000 feet if necessary, with artificial respiration. Over £400 will be expended in purchasing scientific apparatus for this balloon. Experiments will, if possible, be simultaneously made with two other balloons to further investigate the physical conditions of the atmosphere.—Pall Mall Budget.

The Queen's Statuary at Balmoral.

Her majesty proposes to place a statue of the Emperor Frederick in the grounds of Balmoral, which are crammed with memorials of the queen's deceased relatives and friends, while every hilltop in the neighborhood bears a cairn. There are only three statues—one the prince consort, by Theed (representing him in highland dress); the jubilee statue of the queen, which was presented to her by her Scottish tenantry and servants; and a statue of John Brown, by Boehm, which occupies a conspicuous position on a wooded bank near the garden. Princess Alice is commemorated by a Celtic cross of granite, and the Duke of Albany by a seat of polished granite. The memory of Sir Thomas Biddulph is recalled by a granite fountain. The bronze statue of the prince consort in the grounds is an exact copy of his white marble statue in the corridor of the castle.—London Star.

Bad for the Doctors.

"No, sir," said a prominent physician recently; "I'm not getting anything like the amount of work that I ought to have at this time of year. Bless me, I had only one new case all of last week. The reason? Why, cholera, of course. The big cities are in better condition now than they have been in years—probably better than they ever were. Old cesspools and vaults have been closed up, sewers cleaned, cellars dried and whitewashed and plumbing overhauled, and that has knocked out the usual crop of diphtheria and typhoid disorders. Then, people became more careful in their eating and living than they had been before the Normannia got in, and the result of it all is that they have stopped getting ill and sending for physicians. The cholera was a splendid thing for the cities, but I tell you it has been rough on us doctors!" —New York Recorder.

A Fresno Dentist Arrested.

A prominent Mariposa street dentist was arrested today on a grand larceny charge sworn to by S. H. Redden, the coal man, who alleges that on or about March 1, 1893, while under the influence of anesthetics, this dentist surreptitiously removed with intent to steal 87 gold fillings from Redden's teeth and replaced the same with bituminous rock. Now, bituminous rock may be all right in a gutter, but in a man's mouth it tastes badly, and although some say its more expensive than gold, yet Redden don't think so, hence the arrest.

W. Parker Lyon, the furniture man, met with a similar experience in Oakland. A dentist there stole a fine diamond setting from one of his teeth and replaced it with alum, which, of course, in time dissolved and gave Lyon the dyspepsia. He had the dentist arrested, sent him to San Quentin for ten years and got $5000 d mages besides.

HE'S A COLONEL NOW.

FRESNO COMPLIMENTED BY THE K. OF P.

Justice W. D. Crichton Elected Colonel of the Second Regiment, Uniformed Rank.

The Second regiment, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, held an election at Sacramento Saturday night, it having been called to elect a colonel and lieutenant-colonel for the regiment.

Dr. C. B. Nichols of Sacramento presided at the election, and some twenty line officers of the regiment and prominent men of the state were present. This is the largest number of line officers and members of the order that have been together in this state, and the occasion was an enthusiastic one throughout.

Brigadier General F. A. Maguire of Oakland, Colonel L. Burke of Fresno, acting secretary, and a visiting delegation of officers and members from Fresno and other places were present.

The election resulted in the selection of W. D. Crichton of this city for colonel, and J. F. Maganini of Suisun for lieutenant-colonel.

Colonel Crichton has appointed the following staff officers:

N. P. Justy, captain and adjutant; Dr. E. C. Dunn, major and surgeon; Dr. W. F. Wiard, Sacramento, captain and assistant surgeon; J. M. Gillio, Sacramento, captain and commissary; R. McDonald, Fresno, captain and quartermaster; T. F. Moran, Fresno, sergeant major; W. P. Ball, Fresno, color sergeant. The remainder of the staff will be appointed later.

The election of Mr. Crichton to the colonelcy of such an important order is a compliment to Fresno as well as to himself. He has been a member of the Knights of Pythias many years, and has been unremitting in his devotion to the objects of the order. His high promotion is generally looked upon by his fellow knights as a deserved honor.

The headquarters of the Second regiment of the K. of P., U.R., it will be remembered, was recently established in Fresno. The order has 700 members in this district.

For Bronchitis

"I never realized the good of a medicine so much as I have in the last few months, during which time I have suffered intensely from pneumonia, followed by bronchitis. After trying various remedies without benefit, I began the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the effect has been marvelous, a single dose relieving me of choking, and securing a good night's rest."—T. A. Higginbotham, Gen. Store, Long Mountain, Va.

La Grippe

"Last Spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breath seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

Lung Trouble

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured. I can confidently recommend this medicine."—Franz Hofmann, Clay Centre, Kans.

Read the Following Letter

From a grateful patient from whom he arrested the horrible skin disease, Sycosis:

Dr. E. F. Brown.

Dear Sir—For the benefit of others who may be suffering as I did for years, I may say from childhood, I write this testimony for you to publish.

My complaint was a horrible skin disease which you diagnosed as Sycosis. My face, as you remember, when I presented myself at your office on April 18, 1892, was a most disgusting sight to behold.

My husband as well as all members of my father's family, considered it incurable, and so loathsome that they kept from contact with me as much as possible. My head and face was one mass of blotches of a scabby, scaly character, that seemed to run together—in fact I was one mass of sores.

I had doctored with a number of local physicians who thought they could cure me, but I continually grew worse under their prescribing.

At last, wearied and despairing, I consulted you, my two sisters having previously been cured by you. The result has been most gratifying, as I now find myself entirely well through your superior skill and kind treatment.

My home is here in San Jose, where I am well known. My family were early settlers. Should anyone doubt the genuineness of this letter I will be pleased to verify it personally, for you have my gratitude as well as that of our whole family, who indorse and recommend the afflicted to you, feeling sure if curable you will understand wherein others fail.

The Majority Report in the Johnson Boodle Case is Unanimously Adopted.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—There was practically nothing done this morning by the legislature. Saturday the assembly adjourned until 11.30 o'clock this morning, as a large number of assemblymen wished to go to San Francisco, many of whom were guests of the harbor commissioners yesterday on an excursion around the bay on the state tug Governor Markham.

When the gavel did sound in the assembly a number of bills of no importance relating to contingent expenses, advertising and the like were taken up until recess.

This afternoon the special senate file was taken up and the following bills were read the third time and passed:

Act to provide for the construction and furnishing of additional school buildings for the use of the State normal school at Los Angeles.

Act to provide and regulate the manner of receiving and paying fees and other compensation for official services in cities, and cities and counties having a population of over 100,000 inhabitants, and prescribing the duties of officers with reference thereto.

Act to create a special commission for the purpose of examining and reporting to the thirty-first session of the legislature on Torren's land transfer act of Australia.

Act to authorize acquisition by donation of site or sites for camps of instruction for the National Guard of the state of California and to improve the same.

Everett's bill to limit the power of a city auditor's work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks and for the construction of sewers within municipalities.

The majority report of the Johnson investigating committee came up on Mordecai's motion for its adoption.

Bledso tried to have his minority report considered first, but did not succeed.

After Mordecai had spoken at length favoring the adoption of his report, Bledso moved that his minority report be substituted.

A motion made to dispense with the reading of the minority report was lost and the majority report was adopted by a unanimous vote.

This evening the following bills were finally passed:

O'Keefe's bill, taking the appointing of grand jurors out of the hands of supervisors and placing it in the hands of the superior judges.

Carlson's amendment relative to irrigation districts.

The bill to pay Cyrus Lyons' claim of $1000 for the capture of Anastacio Garcia in 1885.

Ray's bill to give the right of eminent domain to electric and power lighting companies.

The bill to compel foreign insurance companies doing business in this state to deposit with the insurance commissioner the sum of $200,000. Adjourned.

The Senate.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—On the urgency file the bill to provide for working convicts on public roads passed.

Tonight the following bills were passed without opposition:

The bill to provide a penalty for the destruction of trees upon highways.

Mayer's eight-hour bill.

Special orders were taken up and a lot of bills to pay claims for the relief of numerous persons were passed.

The bill to build a jute plant for Folsom prison came up. Seymour moved to strike out the enacting clause, but it was refused by a vote of 21 to 11. Adjourned.

Wholly Democratic.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The present roll call of the senate shows 44 Democrats, 29 Republicans, 1 Populist, 1 Independent, 1 Farmers' Alliance and three vacancies. The vacancies are one each in Montana, Washington and Wyoming. Should the Republicans eventually fill all these vacancies, which can scarcely be the case in view of Beckwith's app intment in Wyoming, it would give them 41. Should the third party senators then all vote with the Republicans, which is an unlikely supposition, the senate will still be a tie, with Vice President Stevenson holding the controlling vote. The composition of the house, as shown by unofficial returns, is 217 Democrats, 128 Republicans, 8 Third party.

Want the Time Extended.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The senate in executive session this morning confirmed all the cabinet nominations.

When the doors were reopened after the executive session Sherman presented a joint resolution extending the terms of president and vice president and of the Fifty-fourth congress from March 4, 1893, till April 30, and that that time shall hereafter be substituted as the time for the commencement and termination of the official terms of president and vice president and members of the senate and house. The object is to put the inaugural time in better weather. The motion was laid on the table.

Shook Cleveland's Hand.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Crowds of distinguished visitors began to swarm the White House early today and Mr. Cleveland was obliged to forego his work and listen to words of congratulations from governors of states, senators, representatives and others. Shortly after 9 o'clock the driveway leading to the main doorways of the White House was soon packed with people anxious to shake hands with the President. A multitude of the general public poured through the main doorway in droves and passed bowing, smiling or handshaking the chief magistrate. The President kept up this monotonous routine until 1 o'clock.

Women in Politics.

SAN DIEGO, March 6.—There is a strong movement here to put women on the city board of education so as to lift it out of politics. The Democrats have nominated a women in six of the eight wards, and the Republicans and Populists have also named a women on their tickets for the board; for the Sixth ward Mrs. Georgia A. Matfield has been put on all three tickets, which assures at least one woman member.

Their Last Ride.

LIMA, O., March 6.—A freight train on the Chicago & Erie road went through a bridge over the Ottawa river today, making a bad wreck. Three tramps are buried in the ruins.

HAWAII NEWS.

Latest From That Wants-to-be-Annexed Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The schooner Witzeman, which arrived from Honolulu this morning, brings a letter to the Associated Press under date of February 18th. Everything was quiet on the islands, and the people were awaiting developments from the commissioners at work in Washington. The British man-of-war Garnet arrived at Honolulu from Acapulco, and will remain until April. Her commander knew nothing of the revolution until he arrived. The American and German interests on the islands are united for annexation to the United States. The natives want a government of their own and the English are not strongly opposed to annexation.

The barkentine Hilo arrived from Honolulu this evening. She left there February 18th, and brings advices two days later than those received this morning. The only additional intelligence is the fact that the United States man-of-war Alliance arrived at Honolulu February 16th from Samoa, increasing the American naval strength there to three vessels.

The bark Carrier Dove arrived here from Honolulu tonight bringing advices to the Associated Press up to February 16. Little of importance has transpired on the islands recently. Owing to rumors that ex-Queen Lilioukalani intended to visit the palace, which, to the native mind, would be equivalent to the assumption of royal power, orders have been issued by the military authorities to resist any such attempt on the part of the queen.

The editor of a native paper has been arrested for criticising the provincial government severely.

Everybody in Honolulu is still anxiously awaiting news from the United States.

HONORS TO HARRISON.

Royal Welcome by His Old Friends and Neighbors.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 6.—Ex-President Harrison was welcomed home today. The city was gaily decorated, and Harrison was escorted to his hotel by a procession. Then he drove to his old home. Tonight a general reception at the State house was held.

Today the house of representatives unanimously adopted resolutions extending to Hon. Benjamin Harrison a cordial and hearty welcome upon his return to his home, and congratulations for the "high honor he has achieved for himself and the state of Indiana as President of the United States of America, from which high office he has just retired full of honors."

The capital of the state of Indiana did honor to her most distinguished citizen tonight. Fully 15,000 people gathered at the state house to bid him welcome and greeted him with most enthusiastic demonstrations of applause.

The interior of the state house was beautifully draped with flags and over the speaker's stand floated the state banner of Indiana. When General Harrison stepped to the front of the platform cheers were three times three and repeated.

After suitably acknowledging his welcome the ex-President shook hands with the people who filed by, and thousands were turned away unsatisfied. It was the greatest public reception to any individual Indianapolis has seen in years.

The legislature paid their respects to General Harrison in a body.

Had a Narrow Escape.

HAVANA, March 6.—A serious conflict occurred yesterday at Alen Endaros, which nearly resulted in serious injury to a number of American young women known as the American Female Baseball club. The attendance included a share of the lowest grade of society, and these latter became irritated at the playing of the American visitors. They clamored for a restitution of their money, and at length broke the seats and set fire to the fence around the playground. At this there was general consternation among the female players, who were gallantly defended by the young men of the opposing Cuban club and by the respectable majority of the spectators. Horrible confusion ensued. The police finally succeed in dispersing the mob and giving protection to the young women.

Invited to Attend.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The committee on ceremonies at the World's Fair this afternoon called on President Cleveland and invited him to be present and take part in the opening exercises. The President replied in an entirely informal manner, saying there would be many things claiming his attention at that time, but if he decided to go it would be because he considered it a public duty. He would consider the matter and announce his decision in a day or two. The invitation was done on vellum, and is very elaborate and beautiful. It is inclosed in a morocco case, lined with white silk. Invitations will also be extended to Mrs. Cleveland and the cabinet officers and other prominent people.

Gresham Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Judge Gresham took the oath of office of secretary of state this afternoon. Wharton afterwards signed Judge Gresham's commission and the latter will perform a like office tomorrow for his associates in the cabinet, who will take hold on Wednesday.

Griffith's Knife.

ONOVILLE, March 6.—Von Otto Miller was fatally stabbed at Norris' ravine today by a man named Griffith. Two cuts were inflicted, one in the abdomen and one in the back. Trouble rose over a building owned by Miller and occupied by Griffith. The latter is 70 years old.

Miners Win.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—In an opinion delivered by Justice Blatchford for Chief Justice Fuller in the case of George A. Pettibone and other striking Coeur d'Alene miners in Idaho, against the United States, the court decided in favor of the miners, and directed that the indictment against them be quashed.

Judge Rowell Dead.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—Judge C. W. C. Rowell of San Bernardino died at the Western hotel here tonight of pneumonia. He came here in quite feeble health and took a cold which settled on his lungs.

THE EXCLUSION ACT

Must Be More Rigidly Enforced

ALONG THE PACIFIC COAST

The Treasury Department Has Issued Stringent Orders to Customs Officials.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The treasury department is informed that numerous fraudulent papers have been presented by Chinese upon the Pacific coast and Canadian border, claiming to be merchants with a right to domicile in the United States. In view of this state of affairs Assistant Secretary Spaulding has instructed collectors of customs to disregard all such papers and refuse entry, unless it in prov-n satisfactorily that the persons presenting them have the right to land. This order is the most stringent ever issued by the treasury department in the endeavor to enforce the Chinese exclusion act.

BLAZES OF GLORY.

The Capital in the Hands of Pyrotechnists.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Incidental to the inauguration festivities was the illumination tonight of the capital building and Pennsylvania avenue and the display of fire works on government grounds. These occurred tonight. Electric suns were placed on stands twelve feet high in front of the capitol that illuminated that building.

The effect was beautiful and the structure, being on a hill, its sharp outline was visible miles away.

The lighting of the avenue was effected by forty union illuminations, and these supplemented by electric suns at the treasury department, completed a scene of great brilliancy.

The best entertainment of the evening was pyrotechnical display in the monument grounds where, for about an hour, the crowds were treated to a perfect fusilade of explosions, following each other in rapid succession, and including all numerous devices known to pyrotechnic art.

The Missing Steamer.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The White Star steamer Naronic is still among the missing crafts. She is now twelve days overdue and there is not a single trace of her whereabouts. The overdue Italy, which it was thought might possibly have the Naronic in tow, arrived today and reports that she saw nothing of the missing freighter. Not a few express a belief that the big craft with her crowd of passengers and valuable cargo has gone to the bottom.

Philadelphia—The British steamship Eglantine was sighted tonight passing the Delaware breakwater. She signaled that she had a crew of shipwrecked seamen on board. Among shipping men it is believed the shipwrecked people were the Naronic's crew.

A Fatal Jump.

LOS ANGELES, March 6.—While prisoners were being taken from the jail to the court house today one Jose Garcia made a desperate break for liberty. He jumped over the wall on Broadway, but was there recaptured by a deputy. When taken back to jail he was found to be badly injured internally from the fall over the wall, and he will probably die.

Will Not Rehear.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The supreme court refused to rehear the cases in which the United States and the Southern Pacific company and Colton Marble company are parties. In these cases the suit was recently decided against the railroad's title under its land grant to an immense quantity of valuable lands in Southern California.

Murderous Eck.

CHICAGO, March 6.—Frank Eck, formerly a fireman of Wichita, Kas., murdered his wife tonight by cutting her throat, and then slashing his own from ear to ear. Mrs. Eck had been employed in a hotel here for two weeks past, having left her husband, who, she said, was so insanely jealous that she could not live with him.

Rough on the Sluggers.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Pugilism has received a death blow in Brooklyn, the police authorities having decided that no more professional boxing matches will be permitted in that city.

Settled Well.

WHITEWELL, Tenn., March 6.—The Morrison and Ross families have settled their old feud with knives. Roy and Taylor Morrison and Will Ross were cut to pieces.

Didn't Like It.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—The assembly judiciary committee tonight handed in an unfavorable report on Wilson's anti-scalper bill, which has already passed the senate.

Josiah Accepted.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Hon. Josiah Quincy of Massachusetts has accepted the position of assistant secretary of state.

Coming to See Us.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Postmaster General Wanamaker will leave Washington Wednesday evening for a tour of California and Mexico.

Gresham Resigns.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Judge Gresham has filed his resignation as judge of the seventh circuit court, and it has been accepted.

E. M. Pattison and wife and George Gerke and wife of Cincinnati are visiting I. N. Pattison of this city, a relative of the first named.

J. B. Maloche and wife and W. Perkins are among the Maderaites in town.

Dirt!

Your watch needs cleaning and oiling once every eighteen months, if you would preserve its timekeeping qualities. Consider: In that time the balance wheel turns on its delicate axis 13,996,800,000 times; it does not "rest" at night, like ordinary machines, but keeps at its work unceasingly. You oil an engine, or a sewing machine, or any other mechanical contrivance, daily or weekly; but that delicate instrument of precision—your watch—is allowed to go unwarned for until it is clogged with dirt, and stops. The best of oil becomes thick and dirty in time; in this condition it wears the pivots, and destroys that exactness of their fit in the jewel holes which is necessary to a correct performance. Let us look at your watch—We will give you a conscientious opinion as to whether it needs attention.

Two moths ago I was regarded as a hopeless inebriate, and had been so for fifteen years. Now I am a free man, thanks to the Golden Gate. JOHN WHITT.

I have been a very hard drinker for twenty-five years. I tried to quit, failed, tried again and again—same result; joined the Good Templars without avail; became a member of the Baptist church, but drink was master and I was down in a few days. Now, thank God and the Golden Gate Remedy, I am cured. No money could induce me to drink again. Shall be glad to consult with anyone. LEANDER BRUHL, Bus Driver at Tombs Hotel.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Official forecast for twenty-four hours ending midnight, March 7.— Northern California. — Fair weather, stationary temperature except slightly cooler at Red Bluff and vicinity, variable winds.

SO FAR as Adlai is concerned, the inaugural was disappointing. He did not carry his axe, and made no remarks about having such a thing.

GRESHAM is the only man in the lot who brings a full crop of whiskers to the cabinet, and they are the only concession yet made to the Populists.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND struck a rich vein in his inaugural address. There were streaks of gold running all the way through it, and not a trace of silver.

SANTA BARBARA will have her annual flower festival on April 11th. What the people down there can't produce in the way of flowers don't amount to much, and when they turn themselves loose on an annual flower show it is worth going miles to see.

IT IS not exactly correct to say that the Venuswhip of this state is to be let to the highest bidder, but it is given out as one of the rules that no bid will be accepted if the applicant is under five feet and six inches in hight, which is a pretty cold deal for saved-off "weenees."

THE sewer bonds were beaten Saturday. The property owners who had sewers as a rule voted against the bonds. They had all the sewers they wanted, and were willing to let the other property holders do without.—Expositor.

We do not believe that one taxpayer in fifty cast his vote against the bonds for this selfish reason. A great many people did vote against them, however, because the Expositor and the Triangle wanted them. They considered that sufficient evidence that there was a job somewhere in the proposition.

IF THE Expositor expects the slightest credence to be given its denial that it is supporting the Triangle on account of having been awarded the city printing contract, it should state why it is supporting that combination. It cannot claim to be doing so on account of loyalty to party, for it has damned the political methods of these men as utterly disreputable while they were the dominant power in the Democratic municipal administration. It has denounced their administration as one of jobbery and of incompetency. Can it tell why it is supporting them now?

A CABLE dispatch states that the Waldenses, who inhabit valleys on the Italian side of the Cottian Alps, seriously meditate emigration to North Carolina. It would be difficult to imagine more desirable immigrants. Their name is an inspiration, and brings up historical memories of suffering for conscience sake, of devotion to liberty of soul, to purity and to religion that is unsurpassed in the chronicles of mediæval or modern Christianity. The claim of the Waldenses to have been a separate community since the Apostolic age is generally believed to be incorrect, but there is no doubt that they took their stand as reformers before the advent of Luther. For century after century they were mercilessly persecuted, but held their own with a marvelous courage, vitality and tenacity, repulsing in 1689 a French army of 22,000 men which entered their valleys with the object of destroying them. This was the last serious persecution of the Waldenses, although it was not until 1848 that they were put on the same political level as their Catholic fellow subjects in Piedmont. The reason for the proposed emigration is the depressed condition of the business of cloth-making, on which the Waldenses largely depend for a living. The condition of affairs which drives these simple and frugal people to abandon their native valleys must indeed be depressing, but they will certainly be welcome in the United States should they turn their faces in this direction.

E. S. VAN METER makes this statement in regard to the "procuring" of the Expositor's services by the Triangle: A few weeks ago Mr. Van Meter met Trustee Alford, and in the course of a conversation he and Alford what the Expositor was going to do in the approaching city election. Mr. Alford replied that the matter had been arranged; that he had seen the proprietor of the Expositor at the time the bids for city printing were under consideration and had told him that the trustees could award the Expositor the contract, but they failed to see any reason why the Expositor should be given the preference. The proprietor of the Expositor then stated that as chairman of the municipal central committee he would call the convention at an early date, and that the Expositor would support the nominees of the convention. In accordance with this agreement, which Mr. Van Meter says that Trustee Alford thus described to him, the city printing contract was awarded to the Expositor, the highest bidder, admittedly so as regards the job printing, which was let under a separate contract. This is Mr. Van Meter's statement in regard to this matter, and an every particle of circumstantial evidence goes to corroborate it, something decidedly more substantial than mere denial will be necessary to convince anybody that he has in any way misrepresented the case.—A newspaper which has made a record for playing fast and loose with its party and trafficking for spoils, when confronted with the statement of this character cannot succeed in convincing the public that it is honest in supporting men whom it has vindictively assailed, by sitting on its haunches and howling that somebody is a liar.

THE PARK JOB.

One of the most plainly illegal and barefaced pieces of jobbery that has been perpetrated on the taxpayers of this city under Triangle rule is the city park job as it is being manipulated by Trustee Fahey of the Fourth ward. There is plenty of the-public-be-damned sentiment in the letting of contracts to the highest bidder regardless of the plain requirements of law, but the manner in which several thousand dollars of the people's money is being spent on the park job without even a pretence of going through the forms prescribed by law is a little more brazen than anything that has yet been attempted by this combination, which sets itself up as superior to all law.

This thing should be stopped. It is an outrage upon law and decency and the rights of the taxpayers of the city which should not be permitted for another day. The law plainly provides that no work requiring the expenditure of more than $100 shall be done without advertising for bids and letting the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

In open defiance of the law work on the city park to the amount of several thousand of dollars is being done under the direction of a committee, and it is evident that one member has full sway on the job. Nobody but this committee —or the member of it who boards the workmen—knows anything about what is being paid for this work. The bills are coming in piecemeal, and are being paid without investigation. On the top of the regular work a paving job amounting in cost to several hundred dollars has been done, and the bills are now coming in for that in job-lots, the items so far being for labor and use of machinery.

Not one of these bills should be paid. They are incurred in flagrant and open violation of law, and the city treasurer has no right to pay them. If he does pay them he and his bondsmen are responsible to the city for every cent so paid. More than that, the people look to the treasurer in a case of this kind for protection. He alone stands between the treasury and a gang of jobbers who defy law and public opinion. He has heretofore resisted unlawful raids on the treasury, and there has never been a case in which his official resistance was more plainly in demand than in the present one. Private individuals naturally dislike to interpose, on account of the large amount of bonds which they are required to give. An official can act upon his discretion and no bonds are required. The only financial responsibility incurred by him or the city is that of costs, and if this case be tested The Republican will agree to pay any costs that may be incurred by the city or the treasurer.

In the name of the law, of justice and decency, The Republican demands that this high handed outrage be stopped at once. It has already been permitted to go too far.

Buying and Selling a Blind Man.

A queer business transaction has just come to light in Paris. A man was arrested for buying a blind man. It seems that the first owner of the blind man secured him from an asylum and used to lead him along in front of the cafes to beg. The venture was not a financial success, so he sold his blind man to another speculator, who was soon disgusted. The unfortunate man was deserted on the streets by his purchaser, and in that way the police became acquainted with the peculiar transaction.—Exchange.

The Horse Objected.

Luther Springer, of Hancock, Me., owns a horse, whose days of usefulness being over, he hired a man to kill. The man taking an axe started to lead the horse into the woods, but after going some distance the animal suddenly attacked the would be slayer and throwing him down trampled upon him and injured him so badly that it is feared he will not recover. At last accounts the horse's prospects of living were much better than the man's.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Prince of Wales is about to become a bicyclist. He will not only need a safety machine up to eighteen stone, but he will find an elevator to hoist him into the saddle a very acceptable addition to it.—Exchange.

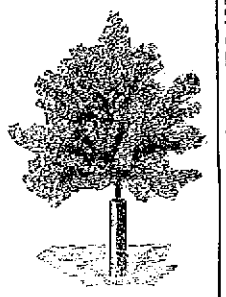
The Pacific Tree Protector



Protects Your Trees From Sunburn, Borers, Rabbits and Other Tree Pests.

IN WARM CLIMATES, or in sections inhabited by the rabbit, the difficulty is not in making the trees grow, but after they have started the obstacles to fix, by reflections upon the tender leaves of the plant. The hot sun's rays, penetrating its heat through the tissues of the bark, warms the sap to such a degree as to disturb its connection from cell to cell, which leads to the destruction of limbs, and consequently the part of the trunk exposed to the greatest heat falls into a decay, and the grower who had hopes of yielding himself upon the appearance of his trees, is confronted with a number of disfigured trees, destroying the beauty and symmetry of the surroundings. He has another foe to contend with, which is really more destructive in action, and that is the festive "jack rabbit." His love is the bark of the young tree or vine. In this he is epicurean in his taste. The many young trees and vines destroyed by his crawling stomach and sharp teeth would stock numerous large orchards and vineyards. The unsightly shake was a partial protection to the tree from the sun, but what the sun spared the rabbit got.

THE PACIFIC TREE PROTECTOR can be counted upon as a sure protection against those dangers. A clearance between the trunk and protector serves to keep the tree cool by allowing a circulation of air. The cost ranges—very slight—1 to 2 Cents a Tree.

FRANK DANIELS

To Appear at Barton Opera House Friday, March 17th.

Frank Daniels' new play, "Dr. Cupid," is one of the greatest successes in all the history of farce comedy. This condition, to whom the hackneyed term inimitable may be justly applied, has in the character of Theophile Mudge one that rivals even the unparalleled Packingham Gilt-edge in irresistible gaiety and grotesque humor. Mudge is a hotel keeper, member of innumerable secret orders, whose badges he wears on his person. Moreover, he has a wen on his neck. The blemish he has removed by his prospective son-in-law, Dr. Cupid. It is the young man's first case. In the operation of healing the scar, a piece of skin is grafted to Mr. Mudge's neck. This is fraught with serious consequences in that he unconsciously absorbs some of the qualities of the man whose skin he borrowed. Among other amusing things a tuft of flame colored whiskers sprout on old man Mudge's neck, for the graft was from the cheek of a red haired tramp. But to try to explain the whys and wherefores of all the fun that keeps the audience in an almost uninterrupted shriek of laughter would make a long story.

Perhaps the second act is the funniest of all, for it introduces Mudge as an athletic gentleman with a weakness for boxing. Frank Daniels' personality affords the charms the charm in all of his impersonations. As a matter of fact Mr. Daniels has no superior on the stage as an eccentric comedian, and his gifts shine their brightest in "Dr. Cupid." His company is capital and furnishes no small part of the entertainment. John Canfield distinguished himself in the character of the inventor. Harry Carson Clarke as Dr. Cupid and Bessie Sanson as Marjorie Mudge do clever work. Indeed, each individual in the company is praiseworthy.—St Louis Chronicle.

CITY ATTORNEY TERRY RESIGNS

The Returns of the Se er Bond Election to Be Canvassed This Morning.

All the members of the city trustees were present at the meeting last night. There was so much routine business transacted and a speech or two from Lawyer Grady that the board adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

A communication was read from City Attorney Reel B. Terry tendering his resignation to take effect immediately.

Mr. Terry stated orally that his professional engagements would prevent him from attending to further duties of the office.

Fahey and Church each introduced resolutions thanking Mr. Terry for the learning, ability, zeal and fidelity with which he had discharged the duties of his office.

Church nominated George B. Graham for the vacancy, and Mr. Graham was unanimously declared elected.

THE CITY ELECTION.

The clerk read the notice calling for the municipal election and prescribing the polling places and officers of election. It was adopted and ordered published.

SALOON LICENSES.

A petition was received from W. C. Harrold asking that John Drager's saloon license be transferred to him, he having purchased Drager's saloon on Mariposa street. Granted.

The petition of F. K. Luchman for a license to conduct a saloon on I street, was granted.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN APPOINTED.

A petition was received from residents of the Fifth ward asking for the appointment of B. Millosich as a regular policeman of the Fifth ward. Granted.

FRESNO STREET GRADING.

A petition was received from property owners on Fresno street asking for an extension of forty days' time on the work of paving that street.

Alford opposed the petition. He thought that forty days was too long.

Church moved that the petition be granted.

Fahey moved that the time be extended to April 15th.

Fahey's motion carried.

Superintendent of Streets Jones announced that J. T. Shanklin wanted a ten days' extension of time to complete the grading of Fresno street.

Fahey and Alford opposed the extension, and suggested that Mr. Shanklin should petition the board and specify how many days' time he wanted.

Mr. Church moved that he be granted ten days' further time, and the motion was defeated by the following vote:

Ayes—Church and Herrington.

Noes—Fahey, Alford and Cole.

Alford moved that when they adjourn they adjourn until this morning at 9 o'clock, at which time Mr. Shanklin could present his petition in proper form.

Mr. Church expressed considerable indignation at the action of the board, and the motion to meet at 9 this morning was carried by Cole, Alford and Fahey.

HOTEL GAS WORKS.

An ordinance was read authorizing D. J. Canty to operate a gas machine in the Hughes hotel and to lay pipes for the conveyance of the gas from the Hughes hotel to the Grand Central. The franchise extends for a period of ten years. The ordinance was adopted.

A petition was received from property owners asking that the south half of block 70 be excluded from the fire limits.

Church moved that the petition be denied. The erection of wooden buildings on that block would jeopardize property in the neighborhood in case of fire.

Alford seconded Church's motion, and the petition was denied, Cole alone voting no.

STREET WORK.

An ordinance accepting the grading of R street, between Mariposa and Tulare streets, was adopted.

A. N. GRADY LAID OFF.

A. N. Grady asked for a lay-off from duty as a policeman from March 20 until the further pleasure of the board. The request was granted.

RESOLUTIONS OF INTENTION.

Resolutions of intention to perform street work were adopted as follows: To grade F street, from Tuolumne north to the city limits.

To grade P street.

TRANSFER OF FUNDS.

Herrington moved to transfer $5000 from the general fund to the street fund. Carried.

THE FISKE RAILINGS.

W. D. Grady appeared on behalf of Mrs. Marcean and gave a history of the legal proceedings in the matter of the removal of the railings in front of the Fiske building on J street. The injunction against the city was served before the boards were placed over the openings. He announced that he would on Monday next apply to the court to dissolve the injunction and allow the city the privilege of putting glass on the openings. The front of the basement has been leased to persons who propose to open a restaurant there. They have paid their rent and are now ready for business.

The matter should be settled at once, either by litigation or consent. The glass and iron frames all of the most common quality will cost $650 in San Francisco, and it will cost about $200 more to lay it, but Colonel Marcean does not wish to use this glass, but a better quality, which will cost $1200. He asked the board what it would allow in order to have all litigation dismissed.

Here is the Barton opera house, added Mr. Grady, with half of the sidewalk taken up with railings, the Fresno National Bank railings and railings in front of the new building on the corner of I and Fresno streets. He did not think that it was right to make an example of his clients while allowing other property owners the right to use the sidewalks. His clients were willing to meet the board half way. They would be willing to accept $600, or they would take the law.

Church said that the matter should have been brought to trial long ago.

Grady remarked that the boards had been placed near the openings with his consent, and he proposed next Monday to remove the boards.

Church suggested that the matter should be referred to the city attorney. Ex City Attorney Terry, he added, had advised them that the city would win the suit.

It would be impossible for the board to litigate the case for $600. That would not do more than pay for the shorthand reporter's transcript.

Church replied that the city should be able to take care of its own side of the case, and it would not cost the city any more to litigate the case than it would cost Colonel Marcean. This was a law suit and the city can stand a law suit as well as Colonel Marcean.

The motion to refer the matter to the city attorney was carried.

The canvassing of the returns of the election for bonds was postponed until this morning.

THE PEOPLES' PARTY

Hold Their Municipal Convention.

THEY CONDEMN THE TRIANGLE

And Indorse Several Republican Nominees and One Democratic—A Harmonious Meeting.

The city convention of the People's party was held last evening in Justice H. Z. Austin's court room. It was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock by S. S. Culver, secretary of the city central club of the party. A temporary organization was effected by the selection of W. H. Cureton as president, F. Knobloch vice president and S. S. Culver secretary.

President Cureton then appointed the following committees:

On credentials—J. B. Hill, F. W. Howard, A. Eastabrook.

On permanent organization and order of business—A. W. Robinson, F. Knobloch, J. M. Rose.

On platform and resolutions—A. C. Crossman, I. L. Grainger, E. S. Barney.

The following delegates were declared entitled to seats by the committee on credentials:

First ward—E. S. Barney, J. S. Eastwood (S. S. Culver proxy), A. C. Crossman, J. M. Young (A. W. Robinson proxy), A. W. Robinson.

Second—F. Knobloch, F. A. Lynn, J. M. Rose, K. T. Lynn (F. A. Lynn proxy), A. Wintermute.

Third—J. B. Hill, H. C. Warner, F. W. Howard, Fred Reisner (A. Mosely proxy), J. M. Boyd.

Fourth—A. S. Edgerly, A. Eastabrooks, H. A. G. Smith, F. W. Mathews, J. H. Rhoads, — Dunn.

Fifth—J. Klee, W. Y. Johnson (W. H. Ware proxy), D. Hester, S. B. Tombs, G. W. Armitage.

Roberts—T. R. Harmon, W. H. Cureton, O. B. Olmis, J. E. Doolittle, I. L. Grainger.

The delegates from Roberts precinct were to have a vote merely in the matter of the election of school trustees.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported that the temporary officers should be permanent.

Following was the order of business: Nomination of candidates for city trustee from the Second, Fourth and Fifth wards; nominations for city marshal, assessor, recorder, treasurer and school trustees. The report was adopted.

After this the report of the committee on resolutions was submitted. It was as follows:

To the People's party convention:

We, your committee, recommend the following:

That this convention, representatives of the People's party of the city of Fresno, do hereby proclaim:

First, that we believe in the principles laid down in the platform adopted by the Omaha convention and bind ourselves to work for that end, which will cause the same to become the law of the land, never swerving, but ever advancing.

Second, that we believe at the present time the affairs of this city are so mismanaged, that it would not be the part of wisdom or patriotism to adhere strictly to party lines in the selection of those to be placed in charge of our municipal offices.

Third, we join with the people at large in condemnation of the spirit of extravagance manifested by those in authority, and pledge our nominees to the spirit of reform in all that will advance the principles which are laid down in that motto: "Special privileges to none and justice to all, and the greatest good to the greatest number."

The question on the adoption of the resolutions caused a lengthy discussion. W. H. Cureton spoke at some length in favor of putting a straight People's Party ticket in the field. He read a letter addressed to the convention from Assemblyman H. J. T. Jacobsen, favoring a straight ticket and opposing fusion. James E. Declittle spoke to the same purpose as Mr. Cureton.

The great majority of the delegates, however, were opposed to nominating a straight ticket, some of those speaking against the step being H. C. Warner, E. S. Barney, S. S. Culver and A. C. Crossman. W. H. Cureton then offered the following amendment:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that a straight Peoples' Party ticket should be nominated, if any.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost. Nominations for trustee from the Second ward were then declared in order. C. J. Craycroft was the only one named, and he was nominated unanimously. E. C. Adams and Joseph Spinney were unanimously nominated for trustee from the Fourth and Fifth Wards, respectively.

Nominations for city marshal were then called for, J. D. Morgan and M. L. Woy being named. A ballot was taken, which resulted in the choice of the former, the vote being 14 to 8.

C. C. Lyon was put in nomination for city assessor, and chosen unanimously.

A motion that no nomination be made by the convention for city recorder carried. The same action was taken with regard to the office of city treasurer, it being the general opinion that both the Republican and Democratic nominees were first class men, and it would be better to make no invidious distinction by indorsing either.

Nominations for school trustees were then declared in order.

A. Eastabrook made a brief speech, which was very favorably received, suggesting that the convention recognize the women of this city in making nominations for this important office. He was of the opinion that women had perhaps a greater interest in school matters than men, and believed that they should be represented on the board. That they were well fitted to serve in such a capacity had been often proved.

The speaker nominated Mrs. Geiss.

Editor Wilkins of the Central Californian and others spoke in the same strain, as did others.

H. C. Warner, while in favor of Eastabrooks' suggestion, expressed a doubt that a teacher could serve as a school trustee, and thought it would be best to provide for such a contingency.

It was finally decided that the chair appoint a delegate from each ward and Roberts precinct and one at large as a committee to make nominations for school trustees, the same to be submitted to the executive committee. Those appointed were as follows:

First ward, E. S. Barney; Second, F. Knobloch; Third, H. C. Warner; Fourth, A. Eastabrook; Fifth, S. B. Tombs; Roberts precinct, T. R. Harmon; at large, J. M. Boyd.

The following city executive committee, to serve for the ensuing year, was appointed by the president:

A. W. Robinson, F. Knobloch, J. M. Boyd, A. Eastabrook, S. S. Culver and J. B. Hill. President W. H. Cureton was, on motion, added to the committee.

The convention then adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

A STREET FIGHT.

Detective Smith and Thomas Stokes Come to Blows

Shortly after arriving in town, Detective Smith was the center of a group of interested people, and was engaged in telling the story of the fight. Thomas Stokes, a brother of Ellis, edged his way into the crowd and told Mr. Smith that he had shot into his (Stokes') house. This Smith positively denied and stated that it was it impossible to shoot into the house from where he was standing. Stokes said Smith was a liar. Smith, as quick as a flash, made a jump for Stokes, but he was seized by men in the crowd. He succeeded in getting released and he flew at Stokes again and landed a terrific blow, striking Stokes in the corner of the eye. Stokes fell backwards, but was assisted to his feet. The blow caused the blood to flow for a few minutes.—Visalia Delta.

A CORRESPONDENT SAYS ONE IS NECESSARY.

Some Statistics in Regard to the Condition of the Court Calendar.

I am told that a petition is in circulation asking the governor to veto either the county division bill, or, failing in that, to veto the bill for an additional judge for the superior court of Fresno county. I am inclined to think that Governor Markham will do neither. Both bills were for a long time before the legislature, and were fully considered. There was no snap judgment in either case. Everybody in the county who reads the newspapers was aware for five or six weeks that both measures were pending.

The Madera county bill was stoutly opposed, but was triumphantly carried through. I considered it unwise, especially for the people of the new county, and still think so. But they are dissatisfied with Fresno county, and seem determined to go, and therefore it seems proper to deal with them as a wise man would deal with a wife who no longer loves him—to let them go with our blessing. The new county proposition must now be left to to the people of the proposed new county to whom the legislature has submitted it. If the required two thirds shall vote for separation we part from them with no ill feeling. If they fail to secure the votes necessary for division, we shall be glad that they are still to be with us. I think that Governor Markham will take this view of the matter, rather than to run a muck against the legislature in a local matter, wherein no principle is involved.

As to the judgeship, I do not see that it will be at all affected by the fate of the county division bill. It was passed almost simultaneously with it, with full knowledge that the Madera county bill was to pass also, and no one lifted up his voice in opposition. It had previously passed the senate unanimously.

The additional judge is needed—is absolutely required to relieve the present blockade of the calendar, which so delays the disposition of lawsuits, as, in some cases to amount to a denial of justice. There are appeals from justices' court now over three years old.

I have been shown an official certificate of the clerk of the superior court which shows the condition of the superior court calendar to be this:

Civil actions begun in first six years to January 1, 1886	1404
Same for next six years to January 1, 1892	2915
Same during the year 1892	646
Total	4965

It thus appears that nearly three times as many civil actions were begun during the last year, as the average for the first six years, and one-third more than the average for the second six years.

The certificate also shows that of the above mentioned civil actions, 2293 have been tried, 1101 dismissed and 1416 remain undisposed of; and that on the first day of January, 1893, there were also pending in the superior court 136 appeals from justice courts, 416 probate and 35 criminal cases.

From this showing it is evident that a third judge is absolutely necessary now.

The amount of business before our superior court from the proposed new county is very small, as we learn from the lawyers, and the bill expressly provides that the new judgeship may be abolished whenever it shall cease to be necessary.

I do not think that many of those who are signing the petition for a veto are aware of the real facts in the case. They are carried away by the loud denunciations of self constituted economists, which have no foundation in fact. The truth is that about the only persons who have opportunity to judge of the judicial force needed to dispose of our litigation are our judges, lawyers and the officers of the court. I understand the judgment of all these to be that a third judge is absolutely needed, for a time at least, whether the people vote for the new county or not. And as no one can yet be sure that a two-thirds vote for the new county will be obtained there seems to be no justification for a veto of a bill which unanimously passed the legislature.

MODERN RELIGION.

Rev. Mr. Potter's Address Before the Unity Society.

ANTIQUITY NOT AN ESSENTIAL

Factors That Make up a Rational Belief—Erroneous Hypotheses Exposed.

Rev. J. W. Potter of New Bedford, Mass., addressed a large congregation last Sunday night in the Adventists' church under the auspices of the Unity society. Mr. Potter is a speaker of more than ordinary ability and made a marked impression upon his hearers.

The following is a synopsis of his subject:

It is a popular opinion that a religion is true if it originated a good many centuries ago and if its birth was authenticated by miracles. A religion professing to originate today by miraculous attestation is discredited in all established churches. An infallible religion, these churches claim, must have an antiquity behind it as well as miracles. In contrast to this ordinary theological teaching it was refreshing to hear a scholarly gentleman assert in a ministerial conference that he was more "concerned to know what is to be our religion tomorrow than what it was so many centuries ago." "Nay," said another, "to know rather what it will be the day after tomorrow." The comment had a certain wisdom as well as wit.

Yet to the more prosaic and practical mind it might occur that there is a still nearer question, namely: "What is the religion for today?" This must concerns us who are living today. We want a religion which will meet the actual needs of human society now; a religion that will meet men and women squarely, without equivocation or evasion, just as they are standing or groping perplexed today, with all the problems, personal, social, intellectual, pressing upon them, which this nineteenth century has started.

In order to meet these demands, religion must be progressive—progressive in its teaching and progressive in its practice. It is preposterous to think that a religion which may have met the wants of primitive peoples in Asia 2000 or 4000 years ago, can be adequate without any change, to meet the conditions of human society in Europe and America in these closing years of the nineteenth century. Yet in most of the seminaries of Christendom for training ministers, the basis of the whole system of instruction is that an infallible revelation of religious truth for all countries and all time, was given to those simple and semi-enlightened Asiatics several thousands of years ago. It is but a few years since a professor was dismissed from a Presbyterian theological school in South Carolina for teaching a mild form of the doctrine of evolution with regard to the creation of man. What he taught was that the physical nature of man, like the plants and brute animals, might have been produced by gradual evolution, and that the Bible does not contradict this view. But his opponents affirmed that to teach that Adam's body may have been produced by evolution, while the scripture distinctly declares that Eve's body was created miraculously from the rib of Adam, was a most dangerous heresy, subversive of the Presbyterian creed, and perilous to the very existence of Christianity. And the professor had to go. Dr. Brigge of New York has been more fortunate, and has secured thus far an acquittal in his recent ecclesiastical trial for a similar heresy, though expressed in more learned phrase, as "denial of the inerrancy of scripture."

This doctrine that the religion of the Hebrews was for all time and all lands leads to strange and harmful Sunday school instruction. The "international lesson" prepared for evangelical Sunday schools a few weeks ago was a study of the details of the succession of King Solomon to King David—the movement of Adonijah to seize the crown, aided by the wily and treacherous Joab, counter movements to foil the plot, etc. What has all this to do with religious instruction in a Sunday school in America in the nineteenth century? Has it a hundredth part of relevancy which the story of Abraham Lincoln's succession to the presidency of the United States in 1861 would have? Why should we say that the Almighty lived among the Jews more than he lived among the American people?

Why should it be thought that there is any more religion in studying the military movements of General Joab among the wild tribes of Palestine than in studying the military movements of General Grant or General Sheridan in our own land?

But, strong as these old theological beliefs are, there are many signs that they are being undermined by advancing scholarship and enlightenment. They are discredited in the court of reason. The first characteristic of nineteenth century religion is that it must satisfy reason. It must answer today's questions; or, if not answer them, at least submit them to rational investigation. It must keep pace with the progress of thought; be afraid of no scientific discovery; face the future rather than the past; venerate truth rather than tradition. The love of truth, whatever and wherever it be, must be its impelling enthusiasm, the pursuit of truth its engrossing object, the living of truth its supreme pleasure.

Second characteristic is that nineteenth century religion must be moral. It may be more than morality, but it must at least have morality. Religion must be itself moral through and through. Its beliefs must be moral; its usages must be moral; and this they have not always been. The day is past when religion can safely speak of morality as "filthy rags." It is no longer religion and morality; it is religion in and through morality. And, thirdly, religion as demanded by the nineteenth century must be humanitarian, philanthropic. It must attack social as well as personal evils. It must go into the world as a stalwart practical worker for social amelioration and for human benefit on earth, and not merely try to fit people for a paradise hereafter.

But, to make a religion, these three characteristics, reason morality, humanity, must be not merely added together mechanically, but vitally organized together in personal character; and this is effected under the impelling conviction that man does not exist for his own pleasure and profit alone or even in relation to humanity alone, but that he lives in vital relation to the whole world and its forces, and has a loyal part to perform in carrying forward the purposes of the mysterious eternal power that is working in through him and through all things. The human self living from and for a higher than self, surrendering itself to the call of a higher law and purpose than its own pleasures, ready, if need be, to perish so that the higher life may survive, this has always been the essence of real religion under all forms of faith, and must remain as the seed-corn of religious life for this and coming centuries.

THE PLAY.

It Came Very Near Being a Burlesque.

Such a crowded house as greeted the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" last evening and such diversity of opinion as to its merits when the curtain dropped on the last act, and little Eva took her final departure! With the exception of the third act. The performance might have passed for a burlesque on the dear old play so well known to all.

It was little wonder that many of the audience snickered at a pathetic moment when tears should well forth, for there was extreme ambiguity. However, there were many pleasing situations, unfitting though they may have been.

R. A. Graham as St. Clair was very acceptable, but as Marks he was out of getting. Robert Tasker should be trained down for a few seasons and then he might pose as Uncle Tom, but he looks too rugged to die from the effects of such a blow as Legree gave him. Maude Sutton made an amusing Topsy, though she chewed her words so much, pitching them in such an exasperatidg key, as to fire one out in the endeavor to understand.

Little Lillian as Eva was wonderfully self possessed for so young a child, but it seemed cruel to permit her to try her baby voice with such forced, harsh tones.

Sam La Forte showed considerable ability as Cute and evoked much laughter in his attempt to board the lion in his den, but the entire cast lacked the savoir faire of refined art.

THE BLUME CASE

SUBMITTED TO THE JURY LAST EVENING.

Blume's Sister Attacked With Hysterics—Other Ladies Very Much Affected.

The case of Michael Blume went to the jury last evening about 5:30 o'clock after a trial lasting twenty-four days.

The court room was crowded with people who had come to hear W. D. Tupper's closing argument for the prosecution, quite a number of ladies being present.

Attorney Tupper made an excellent argument, picking out the weak points in the defense and making the best of the stronger evidence for the people. He occupied almost the entire day. The interest was intense and it soon became evident that some of the ladies present were worked up to a high pitch of nervousness.

The arguments closed, Judge Holmes read his instructions to the jury. He had hardly finished when Mrs. Rush, Blume's sister, who had faithfully attended her brother throughout the trial, was seized with hysterics. Her frame shook with the violence of her emotions, and she finally fainted. Some friends conducted her from the courtroom.

Mrs. Haskins, wife of the murdered man, was also deeply affected and sobbed audibly. Of course the other ladies caught the contagion of tears, and being unable to restrain themselves left the room. It was not an easy matter for quite a number of men to resist the inclination to do a little weeping also.

The jury was locked up in Judge Holmes' room, Deputy Sheriff Frank Scott being in charge. As time wore on without their showing a disposition to report, the prophets predicted a hung jury. At about 12 15 this morning the jury ingeniously notified Deputy Sheriff Scott that they were sleepy, and one of them expressed his doubt that they could agree.

The deputy sent a message to Judge Holmes, who, however, put in no appearance, probably considering it best that the jury should deliberate a while longer. At 2 30 o'clock this morning the jury was still locked up, but whether the sound from within was caused by their deliberations or their snoring could not be determined.

WEST SIDE SCHOOLS.

A Tour of Inspection by the Superintendent.

Superintendent of Public Schools Thomas J. Kirk has returned from a tour of inspection on the West Side, having visited the schools at Crescent, Idlewild, Lawn Tennis, Huron, Burch, New Hope and Summit Lake.

Crescent school, he considered, is deserving of special mention for regularity of attendance, with twenty-nine pupils enrolled, and weeks pass without a case of tardiness or absence, from which it follows, as a matter of course, that interesting and profitable work is being done in that school. For such good results he gives credit to Miss M. F. Kenny, the teacher, and W. F. Grove, the clerk.

At Lawn Tennis a $2300 school house has been built, the grounds fenced, a windmill built, and much interest taken in school matters. Crops look dubious on all except irrigated land, though the late rain may change the prospect to some extent.

The West Side is settled up with a very intelligent class of people, but in many instances are financially very poor. Irrigation is as yet an unsolved problem for the greater area of that portion of the county. Sheep feed is good, and shepherds and sheep plentiful.

Huron school is poorly attended.

A Balloon for the Kaiser.

The sum of 50,000 marks (£2,000) which the German emperor has just presented to the German Society for the Promotion of Aerial Navigation for the advancement of this science is to be devoted to the construction and equipment of a giant balloon. This balloon will be as high as a four storied house, will be fifty-six feet in diameter and it will contain no less than 3,530 cubic meters of gas. It will be made of Egyptian cotton stuff, and will be coated with vulcanized gum, which is considered better than varnish.

A rather interesting feature of the balloon will be the provision of a special valve of a new kind, which will keep the gas pure for a longer time, and therefore sustain the balloon for a longer period. It is proposed to make within a year no less than fifty journeys with the balloon and to ascend as high as possible, up to 21,000 feet if necessary, with artificial respiration. Over £400 will be expended in purchasing scientific apparatus for this balloon. Experiments will, if possible, be simultaneously made with two other balloons to further investigate the physical conditions of the atmosphere.—Pall Mall Budget.

The Queen's Statuary at Balmoral.

Her majesty proposes to place a statue of the Emperor Frederick in the grounds of Balmoral, which are crammed with memorials of the queen's deceased relatives and friends, while every hilltop in the neighborhood bears a cairn. There are only three statues—one the prince consort, by Theed (representing him in highland dress); the jubilee statue of the queen, which was presented to her by her Scottish tenantry and servants; and a statue of John Brown, by Boehm, which occupies a conspicuous position on a wooded bank near the garden. Princess Alice is commemorated by a Celtic cross of granite, and the Duke of Albany by a seat of polished granite. The memory of Sir Thomas Biddulph is recalled by a granite fountain. The bronze statue of the prince consort in the grounds is an exact copy of his white marble statue in the corridor of the castle.—London Star.

Had for the Doctors.

"No, sir," said a prominent physician recently; "I'm not getting anything like the amount of work that I ought to have at this time of year. Bless me, I had only one new case all of last week. The reason? Why, cholera, of course. The big cities are in better condition now than they have been in years—probably better than they ever were. Old cesspools and vaults have been closed up, sewers cleaned, cellars dried and whitewashed and plumbing overhauled, and that has knocked out the usual crop of diphtheria and typhoid disorders. Then, people became more careful in their eating and living than they had been before the Normannia got in, and the result of it all is that they have stopped getting ill and sending for physicians. The cholera was a splendid thing for the cities, but I tell you it has been rough on us doctors!"—New York Recorder.

A Fresno Dentist Arrested.

A prominent Mariposa street dentist was arrested today on a grand larceny charge sworn to by S. H. Redden, the coal man, who alleges that on or about March 1, 1893, while under the influence of anesthetics, this dentist surreptitiously removed with intent to steal $7 gold fillings from Redden's teeth and replaced the same with bituminous rock. Now, bituminous rock may be all right in a gutter, but in a man's mouth it tastes badly, and although some say its more expensive than gold, yet Redden don't think so, hence the arrest.

W. Parker Lyon, the furniture man, met with a similar experience in Oakland. A dentist there stole a fine diamond setting from one of his teeth and replaced it with alum, which, of course, in time dissolved and gave Lyon the dyspepsia. He had the dentist arrested, sent him to San Quantin for ten years and got $5000 d mages besides.

HE'S A COLONEL NOW.

FRESNO COMPLIMENTED BY THE K. OF P.

Justice W. D. Crichton Elected Colonel of the Second Regiment, Uniformed Rank.

The Second regiment, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, held an election at Sacramento Saturday night, it having been called to elect a colonel and lieutenant-colonel for the regiment.

Dr. C. B. Nichols of Sacramento presided at the election, and some twenty line officers of the regiment and prominent men of the state were present. This is the largest number of line officers and members of the order that have been together in this state, and the occasion was an enthusiastic one throughout.

Brigadier General F. A. Magnire of Oakland, Colonel L. Burks of Fresno, acting secretary, and a visiting delegation of officers and members from Fresno and other places were present.

The election resulted in the selection of W. D. Crichton of this city for colonel, and J. F. Magnini of Suisun for lieutenant-colonel.

Colonel Crichton has appointed the following staff officers:

N. P. Insly, captain and adjutant; Dr. E. C. Dunn, major and surgeon; Dr. W. F. Ward, Sacramento, captain and assistant surgeon; J. M. Gillin, Sacramento, captain and commissary; R. McDonald, Fresno, captain and quartermaster; T. F. Moran, Fresno, corbeau major; W. P. Ball, Fresno, color sergeant. The remainder of the staff will be appointed later.

The election of Mr. Crichton to the colonelcy of such an important order is a compliment to Fresno as well as to himself. He has been a member of the Knights of Pythias many years, and has been unremitting in his devotion to the objects of the order. His high promotion is generally looked upon by his fellows knights as a deserved honor.

The headquarters of the Second regiment of the K. of P., U.R., it will be remembered, was recently established in Fresno. The order has 700 members in this district.

For Bronchitis

"I never realized the good of a medicine so much as I have in the last few months, during which time I have suffered intensely from pneumonia, followed by bronchitis. After trying various remedies without benefit, I began the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the effect has been marvelous, a single dose relieving me of choking, and securing a good night's rest."—T. A. Higginbotham, Gen. Store, Long Mountain, Va.

La Grippe

"Last Spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breath seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

Lung Trouble

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured. I can confidently recommend this medicine."—Franz Hofmann, Clay Centre, Kans.

Read the Following Letter

From a grateful patient from whom he arrested the horrible skin disease, Sycosis:

Dr. E. F. Brown.

Dear Sir—For the benefit of others who may be suffering as I did for years, I may say from childhood, I write this testimony for you to publish.

My complaint was a horrible skin disease which you diagnosed as Sycosis. My face, as you remember, when I presented myself at your office on April 18, 1892, was a most disgusting sight to behold.

My husband as well as all members of my father's family, considered it incurable, and as loathesome that they kept from contact with me as much as possible. My head and face was one mass of blotches of a scabby, scaly character, that seemed to run together—in fact I was one mass of sores.

I had doctored with a number of local physicians who thought they could cure me, but I continually grew worse under their prescribing.

At last, wearied and despairing, I consulted you, my two sisters having previously been cured by you. The result has been most gratifying, as I now find myself entirely well through your superior skill and kind treatment.

My home is here in San Jose, where I am well known. My family were early settlers. Should anyone doubt the genuineness of this letter I will be pleased to verify it personally, for you have my gratitude as well as that of our whole family, who indorse and recommend the afflicted to you, feeling sure if curable you will understand wherein others fail.
